NEVER OF WAR GRIPS REDS AS CHINA SCORNS THREAT

Moscow Seethes With Wrath Over "Seizure" of Railroad, While Ultimatum Goes Unheeded

(Copyright, 1929, by the New York Times.)

MOSCOW, July 15. (Exclusive)—Tension is growing in Moscow as protest meetings and defiant speeches fan popular excitement. Resolutions being voted by workers' organizations now speak only of the "seizure" of the Chinese Eastern by Manchurian militarists and demand their punishment.

"We have been patient but now they must know our patience is exhausted," shouted a Red army speaker to a crowd of 10,000 in the People's Park of Rest and Culture. "If they don't understand—" he paused, in utter silence, then ended, "well, then we will tackle them," and the applause crashed like sudden thunder.

The role played at the meetings by reservists was significant. Man after man rose to tell that he fought in the civil war, then exchanged his rifle for the tools of the farm or factory and concluded "I will now take up my rifle again in defense of the social fatherland."

NATIONAL SPIRIT

The last two words typify the Russian spirit today. It has become an article of faith with the Soviet masses that foreign capital is only awaiting the moment to loose "bandit hordes," as the Pravda calls the Manchurian war lords, against the world's proletarian state. Add to that the strong nationalism which found rebirth in the days of foreign intervention and the Polish war and you get this new expression "socialist fatherland" as a national war cry.

To foreign observers here it has often seemed the war danger has been exaggerated—conditions for internal political purposes. But as it may it has had an effect on national nerves so that now when war seems really imminent, unless the Chinese yield its appetite for almost the effect of relief from strain.

CRISIS USEFUL

Whatever it is to be the issue in the coming days it is clear the Communist will be enabled to utilize the mass solidarity and enthusiasm called forth by the present crisis side by side with the demands for decisive action against the Manchurians to vote appeals to the authorities in advance of the date of the issue of the projected industrial loan and increase its amount from 500,000,000 to 1,000,000,000 rubles. Great factories pledged themselves to subscribe 500,000, 000,000 and another 500,000,000.

There are appeals, too, for immediate introduction of the "unbroken working week" and offers to work extra time to increase the quota of the five year plan. Equally striking is the redoubled emphasis laid on "international red day" August 1, as a world-wide Communist protest against war.

From Stockholm, Berlin, Copenhagen, Vienna, Paris and Brussels come reports, according to today's press, that Communist parties there are galvanized by the crisis and determined to make for the demonstrations, "whether they are forbidden by the police or not."

IT ISN'T BLUFFING

But that the Kremlin may take advantage of the situation does not mean the Kremlin is bluffing or is prepared to back down should the Chinese stand pat.

Even three years ago when Chang Tso-Lin seized the Soviet frontier on the Sungari River that runs through Harbin, there was a moment when war was very near. But the leading Soviet statesman said afterward "we could have dealt with Chang Tso-Lin and were ready to do so but behind his puny figure there was a greater, darker shadow." If that is true today, it is the shadow of Japanese protection to be extended over Chang Hsueh-Liang as it might have been for his father.

On the answer to that question no less than on the Chinese yielding or their defiance depend the issues of peace or war.

CHINESE IGNORE THREAT IN RUSSIAN ULTIMATUM

TOKIO, July 15. (P)—Although Moscow's ultimatum expires tomorrow reports from China indicate that the Chinese apparently are going ahead with their assumption of control of the Chinese Eastern Railway without much belief that Russia will resort to force of arms.

The dispatches from Peking state that the Chinese are busy cleaning up all details and taking over all railway property as well as closing all houses hitherto occupied by Soviet employees and confiscating Soviet forestry and mining concessions in the railway zone.

Much interest has been expressed in the visit of M. Serebriakov, an ambassador of the Soviet Union, to London.

LONDON, July 15. (P)—Great Britain has invited Soviet Russia to send a representative to London to discuss with British authorities the resumption of services for diplomatic relations and the renewal of the trade and commercial relations between the two countries, which were broken off by the Conservative government's raid on Arcos House, Russian trade headquarters in London, in 1927.

Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson will be effective without a despatcher announced the dispatch of the invitation in reply to questions in the House of Commons today. The Labor government thus definitely makes its anticipated about-face on the Conservative policy toward Russia.

The House of Commons will have a chance to debate whatever conclusion the British government may draw from the negotiations. Premier Ramsay MacDonald subsequently made plain. No agreement to renew Anglo-Russian relations.

BAR SOUGHT DON CANADA Quota Advocates Whet Axes

Mexican Exclusionists Plan Extension of Crusade to Northerners

WASHINGTON, July 15. (Exclusive)—Relations between Canada and the United States are likely to be tested further this winter as the result of the announced purpose of immigration restrictions to tighten the bars.

While it is true that Representative John E. Box, Democrat of Texas, leader of the restrictionist group in the House, has declared his intention officially of seeking to place Mexican immigration under quota, it seems inevitable here that Canada will be drawn into the fray by those interested in fair play who will not countenance doing anything to the neighbor at the south that is not done to the one at the north.

RAID ON MEXICANS

During the last session prolonged hearings were held on the so-called bill which would place immediate limits on the number of Mexicans admitted to the United States. Mr. Box himself, coming from Texas, is concerned primarily with Mexican immigration. In advocating his bill before the committee, therefore, he stressed the need for Mexican restriction and paid little or no attention to immigration from Canada.

Other witnesses, taking this as a cue, confined their arguments to reasons why those below the Rio Grande should be permitted to come in only in reduced numbers. At the session adjourned without anything being done, either to Mexican or Canadian immigration.

LOBBYING BEGINS

But there is no doubt here that unusual pressure will be brought upon next Congress when the Box bill is reintroduced next December. This was indicated a few days ago when Senator Reed, Republican of Pennsylvania, was asked by Capt. James B. Trevor of New York, chairman of the coalition of 100 patriotic societies which were active in the campaign to prevent the repeal of the national origins provision. If he did not believe Mexico should be placed under the quota.

Senator Reed is an acknowledged restrictionist. He fought President Hoover bitterly on national origins—and won out. But the Senator shrewdly sees the danger of antagonizing Mexico. He told Capt. Trevor that serious international complications might result as a result of a quota.

Senator Reed, too, believes that there is still less cause for placing Canada on a quota basis but this will not prevent the attempt from being made.

"It is maintained," Mr. Box said today, "that a 60 per cent reduction in the number of Mexicans admitted is accomplished. I seriously doubt, however, that the measures now on hand are at all adequate for the protection of the country against the rush of Mexican immigration. I shall continue to work for the enactment of something like a quota law for Mexico."

Mr. Box said he was too far away (Continued on Page 2, Column 3)

Quakes Again Shake Persia

TEHRAN (Persia), July 15. (P)—A severe earthquake today shook the Khorestan region of Persia. Although a number of villages are reported destroyed, the casualties are light because of the fact the shock came in the daytime.

The district between Shirvan and Kuchan is particularly hard hit. Disturbances also were felt at Meshed and Kuchan, while a slight shock, which caused no damage, was felt at Bender Abbas last night.

Wellington (N. Z.) July 15. (P)—After a comparatively quiet period a fairly heavy earthquake was felt in the West Port and Graymouth district on the western coast of South Island last night. It was followed by a smaller shock.

Vibrations were felt to a lesser degree in Wellington and Christchurch. No damage is reported.

BEVERLY HILLS, July 15. (P)—[To the Editor of The Times:] I see where England has recognized the government of Russia. That means that war is practically assured with Russia and China, and they are getting all set for the old war contracts. They all learned something from us in the last one. Watch us start recognizing, too.

You know there is nothing that makes a disreputable nation look respectable as quick as to have it give you a fat war contract. All our highly civilized nations are going to kill each other off neutrals at least would like the privilege of furnishing the ammunition.

MARRIAGE OF ROGERS CONFIRMED

Oil Millionaire's Family Authenticates Report of Wedding to Mrs. Miles

NEW YORK, July 15. (Exclusive)—The family of Col. H. H. Rogers, Standard Oil multimillionaire, tonight confirmed his marriage to Mrs. Basil Miles. The ceremony took place in England two weeks after the oil king was divorced at the Hague by his first wife, with whom he had lived for more than two decades, but from whom he was estranged since his part in their daughter's short-lived marriage to Count Ludwig Salm.

His son-in-law, Arthur P. Ramos, who, with Col. Rogers' daughter, Mildred, and her son by her first marriage, now lives at Roslyn, L. I., said Col. Rogers and his bride probably will return to New York within two or three weeks.

The marriage, the last in a series of events that began with Mrs. Miles' ill-fated wedding to Count Salm, has been welcomed for financial reasons. Col. Rogers refused to talk about it and confirmation was not forthcoming until his son-in-law saw fit to speak last night.

Mrs. Miles divorced an American engineer, Lester Morton Davis, in 1924, and a year later married Basil Miles, an economist and diplomat of Philadelphia. He died in 1928.

Meanwhile the former Mrs. H. H. Rogers has been seen a great deal in the company of her daughter's divorced husband, Count Salm, in Paris.

Though Col. Rogers opposed Mrs. Miles' marriage to Count Salm, Mrs. Rogers defended the tennis star nobelman.

KING UNDER OPERATION

Portion of Two Ribs Removed

Ordeal More Severe Than Public Had Been Led to Expect

Condition Satisfactory Since Troublesome Abscess Has Been Drained

LONDON, July 15. (P)—King George today successfully came through an operation which was of a more serious nature than the public had been led to expect. Tonight His Majesty was officially stated to have made "entirely satisfactory" progress.

The members of the royal family, who called again at Buckingham Palace this evening, were delighted to learn that the King's condition was satisfactory. The Prince of Wales, the Duke of York and the Duke of Connaught all visited the palace to inquire for him.

The public was pleased that the King was in such good general health, that no complications are feared from the operation, and, although naturally anxious, displayed none of the great solicitude which characterized His Majesty's serious illness last winter.

This attitude of confidence was largely brought about by the complete frankness of the surgeons in explaining the nature of the operation.

Several doctors came to the palace for the operation, which was performed by Sir Hugh Riggby and Prof. Trotter in the King's bedroom.

They issued a bulletin after the operation reading as follows: "An operation has been performed on His Majesty, the King. Portions of two ribs were removed in order that the circumscribed abscess, one and a half inches across, should be quickly drained and treated. The condition of His Majesty is satisfactory."

The abscess was a consequence of the King's serious illness last winter, and was on the right side of his chest.

Another member of the royal family is now in the hands of doctors. The Duke of Gloucester received medical attention this evening in further treatment of a fractured collar bone he suffered in Canada. The trouble was of a minor character.

MRS. GANN ANSWERS ON DRINK

Tells W.C.T.U. That She Declined Liquor at Dinner Given by Sir Eme Howard

LEXINGTON (Ky.), July 15. (P)—The dinner given by Sir Eme Howard at the British Embassy at Washington recently, which decided the social controversy as to where Mrs. Dolly Curtis Gann, sister and official hostess for Vice-President Curtis, should sit, also revealed Mrs. Gann's attitude on liquor served at Embassy dinners.

The Kentucky Women's Christian Temperance Union wrote an inquiry to Mrs. Gann asking for a "frank statement." The correspondence was made public today.

"Did you for the honor and dignity of your country decline liquor at Sir Eme Howard's dinner?" Mrs. Gann was asked.

"I did decline," she replied.

Fahy Delayed by Motor Ills

WICHITA (Kan.), July 15. (P)—Delay in repairs to the leaking oil system on his Lockheed-Vega monoplane tonight kept Lieut. Herbert J. Fahy, transcontinental flyer, in Wichita, Kan. He was forced down Sunday at Kiowa, Kan., on a flight attempt across the continent.

A check of the plane's motor late today revealed additional trouble, which may not be repaired in time to take off tomorrow for Los Angeles, as he had planned.

Arizona Storm Wrecks Autos

WINSLOW (Ariz.), July 15. (P)—A dozen automobiles were wrecked, several persons were slightly injured and automobile traffic was tied up last night on the highway between here and Holbrook and Flagstaff as the result of a terrific electrical storm accompanied by a downpour of rain that made the highways impassable in many places.

A number of automobiles skidded off the road, several overturning.

Three Lose Lives in Auto's Plunge

ROCK SPRINGS (Wyo.), July 15. (P)—Three persons were killed near Thayer Junction, twenty-four miles east of here, last night when their automobile broke through a protecting fence on the Lincoln Highway and rolled down a forty-foot embankment. The dead: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wassong, Rock Springs; Charles M. Durham.

MARRIAGE OF ROGERS CONFIRMED

Oil Millionaire's Family Authenticates Report of Wedding to Mrs. Miles

NEW YORK, July 15. (Exclusive)—The family of Col. H. H. Rogers, Standard Oil multimillionaire, tonight confirmed his marriage to Mrs. Basil Miles. The ceremony took place in England two weeks after the oil king was divorced at the Hague by his first wife, with whom he had lived for more than two decades, but from whom he was estranged since his part in their daughter's short-lived marriage to Count Ludwig Salm.

His son-in-law, Arthur P. Ramos, who, with Col. Rogers' daughter, Mildred, and her son by her first marriage, now lives at Roslyn, L. I., said Col. Rogers and his bride probably will return to New York within two or three weeks.

The marriage, the last in a series of events that began with Mrs. Miles' ill-fated wedding to Count Salm, has been welcomed for financial reasons. Col. Rogers refused to talk about it and confirmation was not forthcoming until his son-in-law saw fit to speak last night.

Mrs. Miles divorced an American engineer, Lester Morton Davis, in 1924, and a year later married Basil Miles, an economist and diplomat of Philadelphia. He died in 1928.

Meanwhile the former Mrs. H. H. Rogers has been seen a great deal in the company of her daughter's divorced husband, Count Salm, in Paris.

Though Col. Rogers opposed Mrs. Miles' marriage to Count Salm, Mrs. Rogers defended the tennis star nobelman.

BEVERLY HILLS, July 15. (P)—[To the Editor of The Times:] I see where England has recognized the government of Russia. That means that war is practically assured with Russia and China, and they are getting all set for the old war contracts. They all learned something from us in the last one. Watch us start recognizing, too.

WHITE RUSSIAN REVOLT NURSED BY HARBIN JUNTA

"Times" Writer in China Listens in on Plotting for Creation of an Independent Siberia

The following article, just received by mail from Fred Hogue, a member of The Times staff now in China with a group of journalists engaged in study under auspices of the Carnegie Foundation, is of special interest in view of the critical developments in Chinese-Russian relations in recent days. Mr. Hogue describes some of the conditions leading up to the present crisis.

HARBIN, June 30. (Exclusive)—Red was the sun that rose this morning in an opal sky over the fertile plains of Siberia, like the crimson disc on the white field of the banner that symbolizes the Empire of Japan; but it cast a white light on the broad, glittering waste of water that is the Tangarai River, and the city of Harbin, founded on its banks by the Russians as a railroad center thirty years ago; now a seething caldron of duplicity and intrigue where three nationalities meet but do not assimilate—Russia, China, Japan.

Here are not only the seeds of future wars, but the ripening grain awaiting the sickle of the red-garmented harvester. Spectral shadows of coming events lie across Eastern Siberia and Manchuria.

When I visited the office of G. Hanson, the American Consul, this morning I waited for an hour in his anteroom, for he was in conference with the British Consul.

As I waited, a door opened and a man of middle age and naval bearing entered brusquely and passed through. His blue tuxedo eyes flashed on me, then turned away with the swiftness of a moving piston; but in that glance I recognized Capt. Powell, formerly stationed at San Pedro, now at the American Legation at Peking.

I looked at my watch; the train from Mukden had arrived about twenty minutes before.

CONSULATE RAIDED
When I left my room in the Hotel Moderne this morning the hall was patrolled by uniformed Chinese soldiers, a sign that high Chinese officials from Mukden or Peking were domiciled there.

Ten days before our arrival the soviet consulate in Harbin was raided by Manchurian soldiers; all the documents found were seized and sent to Mukden. In the grim Harbin state prison are ten cells whose occupants, arrested in that raid, still are held incommunicado.

This morning the office of the Novosti Zhensk, a daily newspaper published in Russian, was raided, and further publication was forbidden. The publication was reported here to be subsidized by Moscow.

I scanned carefully the columns of the two dailies published in English. The only local news was an article recounting the banquet given last night to the American journalists, and some trivial personals. The foreign news consisted of some sensational cables from Reuters-British, influenced—and from "Rene"—a Tokyo news service under governmental influence.

I sought the two editors, the one a Russian, the other an Englishman. They told me that all articles of a political nature must be submitted to the government censor before publication. The censor has never been disciplined for what he cut out; but he has sometimes been removed for what he permitted to pass.

INDUSTRY REWARDED
I was informed that the article for which the Russian newspaper was suppressed had been passed by pointed by the Russian government to negotiate in the affair. The Russian representative is expected in Harbin Wednesday, but there is not much belief apparent there that he will be able to alter the present situation. He arrived at Irkutsk by air today and immediately left by train for Harbin.

Reports from Vladivostok by way of Harbin tell of a demonstration against the Chinese Consulate there, action in connection with the seizure of the railway without surprise and in a matter-of-fact manner.

Cen. Chang Ching-Hui, governor of the Harbin district, urged new and old employees of the railway to remain faithfully at their posts and disregard all rumors. He also proposed a conference on joint railway labor union or other organization.

LEAGUE ACTION
MAY OCCUR IN CRISIS

PARIS, July 15. (AP)—Whether China will appeal to the League of Nations in connection with the ultimatum sent her late Saturday by soviet Russia, as a matter of endangering world peace, today caused much speculation. League critics both here and in Geneva.

M. Adachi, Japanese ambassador to France, now is acting president of the League Council. He possesses the right of veto in the Council in special session if he deems the situation really menacing, and this without waiting for a formal appeal from China.

In any case, M. Adachi, like most other officials, went to the country for several days over the French national holiday of July 14 and no action is expected several days.

Since Russia is not a member of the League of Nations and is opposed to its political activities, it is not surprising that the League will wait until the last moment before launching a League investigation.

NATIONALIST CHIEFS
SAY CHINA UNPERTURBED

NANKING (China) July 15. (AP)—Leaders of the Nationalist government today declared their government remains the threatening attitude of Russia over seizure of the Chinese Eastern Railway in Manchuria, but is not perturbed.

They are not in the least disturbed by Russia's ultimatum demanding a conference within three days.

LONDON WORRIED
OVER STATE OF AFFAIRS

LONDON, July 15. (AP)—Soviet Russia's ultimatum to China is regarded here as startling and endangering the peace of the Far East and is viewed with considerable anxiety.

The effect on the peace of the Far East is general. Two or three editorialists hold both China and Russia blameworthy for both apparently having been misled by the government's possibility of Japan's becoming involved in the quarrel is regarded with misgiving and the situation is said to be full of sinister possibilities.

AMERICA PROPOSED
AS ARBITER IN ROW

ST. LOUIS, July 15. (Exclusive)—According to officials of the local soviet legation, the Moscow Foreign Office is discussing the proposal of Acting Commissioner of Foreign Affairs Livingston to request the United States to act as arbiter between China and Russia in the present dispute over the ownership of the Chinese Eastern Railroad.

While America does not recognize Russia, still the proponents of the idea say the soviet government's acceptance of the Kellogg peace pact has tied Russia's hands, and since this is the first serious conflict which has arisen since the pact was signed, Moscow should request Washington to maintain peace.

Deputy Commissioner of Foreign Affairs Barakhan is said to be opposing the proposal, saying Russia can solve the Chinese trouble without outside assistance.

Latest reports from Moscow discount the possibility of war, and the soviet government has reinforced the police guards before all Chinese consulates in China with Chinese troops. The chief of the Moscow police is said to have been ordered to lead a riot squad when the Chinese Consulate was bombarded with empty vodka bottles by a crowd, has been ordered before the Chinese commission for investigation.

Military authorities also scout the possibility of trouble, saying the critical food shortage in Russia makes it impossible to feed an army concentrated in Eastern Siberia.

NOTE OF SOVIET
SLOW IN TRANSMISSION

MOSCOW, July 15. (AP)—A delay in transmission of the soviet note to China on the Chinese Eastern Railway question in Manchuria seemed likely tonight to lead to an extension of the three-day limit for a reply.

The Foreign Office today published a statement from the Chinese representative here notifying them that the note was translated into Chinese on Saturday night and filed by telegram at Nanking with a request to relay it to provincial officials. The note was a burst of direct communication. More than twenty-four hours thus were lost in transmission.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (Exclusive)—An investigation of the possibilities of opening Chinese, Japanese and other Near West markets for California canned, dried and fresh fruits, was outlined today at a meeting called by the California Development Association.

Prof. H. H. Crocheron, director of agriculture, extension of the University of California, who will leave in the near future to make a study of the food habits of the Near West peoples, under the joint auspices of the University of California and the United States Department of Commerce, stated that of three possible remedies for holding up the price level for California fruits, the most practical is that of increasing demand.

During the past ten years, he stated, many of the popular fruits have increased more than 50 per cent in production and that to stabilize the industry under this condition, it is necessary to find more consumers or greater consumption of products by those already using them.

Although from 35 to 40 per cent of some of California's fruit products are exported to Europe, in no case have the exports of these commodities reached 1 per cent to Near West countries, he said.

Prof. Crocheron will be accompanied by W. J. Horton, specialist in agriculture extension at the University of California. Their trip, lasting from six to eight months, will take them through Japan, China, the Philippines, Java, Malaya and India, covering all the principal centers of population on route.

FEDERAL FARM BOARD MEETS

a magic wand or an overnight action. Real institutions are not built that way. If we are to succeed it will be by strengthening the foundations and the initiative which we already have in farm organizations, and building steadily upon them with the constant thought that we are building not for the present only, but for next year and the next decade.

"In selecting this board I have sought for suggestions from the ranks of farmers, co-operative and other organizations and yours were the names most universally commended; you are thus in a position to represent the organized agriculture itself. I congratulate each of you on the distinction of his colleagues and by your appointment I invest you with responsibility, authority and resources such as never before have been conferred by our government in assistance to any industry."

EIGHT AT MEETING

Eight board members, including Secretary Hyde of the Department of Agriculture, assembled early at the White House. Another member is to be selected, one to represent the vast wheat industry, but lack of unanimity among the wheat growers and other factors are delaying a selection.

Mr. Legge said no assumptions were in order as to which commodity will receive first attention of the board. Both he and Secretary Hyde expressed optimism over the wheat market price increase today. They attributed this to the payment of the effect of the farm board's establishment. Mr. Legge added that "we have a lucky break at the start, anyway."

The chairman intimated that the representatives of several other commodities besides wheat are placing early claims for a share of the $500,000 loan fund at the board's disposal.

MONEY AVAILABLE

Congress already has made $100,000 of this fund available, but Mr. Legge said its disposition awaits completion.

In addition, the members are Secretary Hyde, who holds a place ex-officio as head of the Agriculture Department; James C. Stone of Lexington, Ky., attorney, representing tobacco; Carl Williams of Oklahoma City, cotton; C. B. Denman of Farmington, Mo., the stock; Charles C. Reagan of Los Angeles, fruit farming; William F. Schilling of Northfield, Minn., dairying; and Charles B. Wilson of Hall, N. Y., who speaks for the miscellaneous agricultural interests of the Northeast.

from Canada to be concerned with immigration at the northern border but admitted that undoubtedly if Mexico were to be placed on a quota basis there would immediately be a demand from certain sources that this country could not afford to treat Mexico differently to Canada.

"This is, however, a rather futile argument," added Mr. Box, "inasmuch as we certainly have singled out Japan and China from the rest of the world and excluded their citizens. We have a perfect right to do as we wish with regard to those entering our boundaries."

ENDURANCE FLIGHT ON AT BAY CITY

Stephens and McKinley
Get Second Refueling;
Lindbergh Sees Take-off

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (Exclusive)—Barlett Stephens, acting superintendent of the municipal airport at Mills Field, and his co-pilot, Fred McKinley, received their second refueling without incident early tonight in a new assault on the endurance flight record of 34 hours, 41 minutes and 23 seconds set by Lindbergh and Reinhart at Los Angeles.

The two took off at 10:14 a.m. 16-day almost without spectators. Included in the few who watched, however, was Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who confined himself to the optimistic comment: "I wish them luck."

"I wish them luck," before leaving the ground, said they hope to remain aloft 400 hours.

German Liner
Sails Today on Maiden Voyage

BERLIN, July 15. (AP)—The North German Lloyd's new giant liner Bremen will start on her maiden voyage to New York tomorrow with at least one of her chief construction engineers of the belief that she will establish a new speed record for the Atlantic crossing.

The Bremen is a 46,000-ton vessel. Engineers expect she will cover the Bremen-New York run in six days and the run from the channel ports of Southampton and Cherbourg in five days.

The present world record for the crossing from Cherbourg to New York is 5 days, 2 hours, 11 minutes, established by the Mauretania in July, 1928.

FLIGHT NOT LINDBERGH'S
ONLY EAGLE ATTRIBUTE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who rarely speaks for publication on any subject but aviation, delivered a lecture today on honesty and integrity.

The lecture, incidentally, was recorded on a sound motion-picture reel, but probably will never be presented in a motion-picture house.

The colonel, whose antipathy for sound reels is well known, was approached at Mills Field here today by a "talkie" cameraman who had a microphone under his sweater.

"Isn't that a microphone you have hidden there?" asked Lindbergh sharply.

"Yes," admitted the operator.

plane that started for America at almost the same time as the French plane Saturday morning.

That wind, no doubt, also had much to do with the disappearance in westward Atlantic flights of Nungesser and Gail, Princess Lowenstein-Wertheim and her two men

"That's not honest," said the colonel. "Why didn't you approach me with the microphone in plain sight. That would be the honest thing to do."

"Well," said the operator, who had tried repeatedly to obtain a sound interview, "if I bring the 'talkie' out will you say a few words?"

"No, I will not," the colonel replied, "because you have not been fair about this matter. You have not been honest. I don't approve of your actions at all."

The operator departed with a lecture on honesty recorded on his sound reel and Col. Lindbergh made another flight.

companions and the Hon. Elsie MacKay and W. G. R. Hinchliffe.

SUMMER WORST TIME

Officers of the Naval Hydrographic Bureau at Washington have estimated that summer is perhaps the worst of all times for a westward flight of the North Atlantic because of this very wall of wind which moves eastward across the ocean.

In early autumn it has less velocity, although it is almost always in evidence, causing flyers to refer to the westward crossing as an "up-hill" flight. Aviators have estimated that the effect the westward flight is 800 miles longer than the eastward because of the retarding effect of the wind.

DRAPE FUEL TANKS

Prevailing westerly air currents are also the foe of westward flyers, because they cause the laboring planes that buck them to use up so much fuel in the effort that they tanks are an ever-increasing possibility before the ocean has been crossed.

Brief hope came today that Maj. Ludwick Idzikowski, Polish ocean flyer, had not been killed in the crash of his plane in the Azores, but that hope was quickly dashed, except in the hearts of a few staunch supporters who refused to accept the overwhelming evidence.

A cablegram from Maj. Kubala, addressed to the Polish committee in New York, arrived announcing that Idzikowski was critically injured, but was not dead. Investigation revealed the cable had been sent yesterday noon and was delayed in transmission. Maj. Kubala had sent it shortly before his companion died.

State Highways
Cost Revealed

SACRAMENTO, July 15. (AP)—The report of Bert B. Meek, Director of Public Works today to Gov. Young and the State Highway Commission, revealed that $14,661,971.55 was spent during the 1927-28 biennium on new California highways, funds being derived from the 1-cent gasoline tax.

All projects included in the 1927-28 highway program have been placed under contract save three which now are being advertised for bids and which will be let within thirty days. Meek stated, and added that $5,000,000 worth of work included in the 1929-31 program had been contracted for.

TARIFF HEARING
BEGETS TEARS

Plea Made for Independence of Philippines

Manuel Rojas Weeps as He Urges Freedom

Committee Hears Debate on Duty for Islands

WASHINGTON, July 15. (AP)—Statistics and technical data were shunted aside by members of the Senate Finance Committee at its tariff hearings today as a youthful appearing Filipino—with tears in his eyes—pleaded for freedom of the Philippines.

He is Manuel Rojas, speaker of the House of Representatives of the Islands and chairman of the Philippine Legislative Commission, sent to this country to protest the placing of import duties or restrictions on goods from the archipelago entering the United States.

Rojas objected particularly to testimony by John M. Switzer of New York, representing the Philippine-American Chamber of Commerce, that the Philippines want independence as a principle, but are praying they will not get it. These words were used by Chairman Smoot and Switzer agreed that is the case.

TEARFUL APPEAL

In clear English, Rojas denounced this thought and declared the Philippines are for independence, "not only on principle, not only because it is a natural yearning of a people to be free, but because we sincerely believe that only in freedom will we be able to work out our destinies."

"While we are grateful for what the United States has done for us and we love this country, we love our country more and we love freedom more," he added.

Rojas asked that Congress authorize a plebiscite in the islands on the independence question and declared if 90 per cent of the people in New York freedom, he will abandon his efforts in that direction. He predicted also that if the issue were carried to the American electorate the decision would be overwhelmingly in favor of independence.

MORE TOMORROW

Two other members of the special commission will be heard tomorrow.

Chester H. Gray, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation, and Charles W. Holman, representing the National Co-operative Milk Producers' Federation, precipitated the clash in views by advocating the placing of duties on Philippine products that compete in this country.

Gray contended high rates of duty on agricultural products would be of no assistance to the American farmer as long as imports from the islands are allowed to enter free. Holman urged that, if duties are levied against the Philippines, they be segregated and returned to the island government. This is in line with a proposal by the National Orange.

Switzer described Holman's proposal as "perfectly shocking."

"As long as we recognize our obligations to the Philippines," he argued, "our duty is to help them, in dependence or no independence, and make them prosperous so they can support that splendid superstructure of modern civilization we have set up there."

Declaring the existing free-trade policy with the islands has been mutually beneficial, Vicente Villamin, Filipino lawyer, said he will oppose restriction of Philippine free-duty sugar imports or the levying of duties against her goods.

Gray also asked withdrawal of the power given the President under the flexible provisions to change import levies and establishment of a nonpartisan tariff commission with power to make rates subject to review or repeal by Congress.

BRITISH WATCHING

Missionary Brings Story of Fruit Burying Cocktail Drinking Fowl

NEW YORK, July 15. (Exclusive)—That a little bird lives near the headwaters of the Zambezi and there, far from human habitation and the closer intimacies of bar-rooms, makes its own hard liquor and drinks it secretly, is one of the stories brought home on the Leviathan today by W. T. Logan, a missionary returning for a rest to his home in Buffalo.

The little bird, said Logan, on his word as a missionary, makes a little hole in the clay river bank, fills it with fruit and seals it over. After the proper period it goes back and opens the clay vat, sips a little of the contents and goes forth, fearless as the king of the forest.

Hugo Von Hofmann Stahl Dies Suddenly After Rites to Suicide Offspring

VIENNA, July 15. (AP)—Hugo Von Hofmann Stahl, celebrated poet and dramatist, died suddenly at Roudun near here this afternoon after the funeral of his son, Franz, who had committed suicide by shooting.

The son recently had traveled in the United States, and a brother, Raimund, is now in Hollywood, Cal. His suicide became known only today.

The father was born in 1874 and his works include "Wodan's Nachtrag," "Buch Der Freunde" and "Der Turm."

Wreck in East
Kills Engineer

PITTSBURGH, July 15. (AP)—Engineer B. Evans of Pittsburgh was killed, pinned under his engine late tonight when the Pittsburgh, east-bound Pennsylvania passenger train, ran into several derailed freight cars near Hillside, Westmoreland county, the Pennsylvania office here was advised. No passengers were injured, although the club car and four sleepers, in addition to the locomotive, left the rails.

The freight was running in the same direction as the passenger train. Several freight cars jumped the track ahead of the Pittsburgher, and before it could be flagged it had crashed into the derailed cars.

Amnesia Victim
May be Lewis

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (Exclusive)—Whether the victim of amnesia found wandering in a dazed condition last Saturday in Newton F. Lewis of Los Angeles remained undetermined today. Efforts to restore the man's memory failed and he remains under observation.

The amnesia victim partly was identified yesterday as Newton F. Lewis, a partner in the Crawford Aircraft Company, Venice, wanted in Los Angeles on charges of petty theft. He refused, however, to admit he is Lewis and reiterated he forgotten his name and identity.

Theft Explained
as Science Aid

BERKELEY, July 15. (Exclusive)—Asserting confessing to police that he stole from his employer "in the interest of science," John Lawrence Bartholomew, 19 years of age, University of California student, faced a charge of petty theft today.

Bartholomew was arrested while he was making radio experiments at his home. He admitted, police said, stealing $100 in cash and $200 worth of radio parts.

"I have found a way to make a better radio than any set on the market at present," declared Bartholomew. "I stole in the interest of radio science."

Walther League President Addresses Convention

Danger Cited of Forcing Moral Vices by Law

Rank and File of Modern Youth Declared Chaste

FORT WAYNE (Ind.) July 15. (AP)—Delegates to the thirty-seventh international convention of the Walther League, a young people's organization of the Lutheran church, were stirred to enthusiasm today by the address of the league president, E. J. Gallmeyer of Fort Wayne, in which he assailed killing during prohibition enforcement raids. Lutherans, he declared, "believe in regulation through Christian influence and not through policeman's billy."

The speech of the league president, in the course of which he defended modern youth, brought a round of applause from the convention which is largely made up of young folks. Gallmeyer, a realty dealer of this city, has been nominated for re-election as president of the league.

REPORTS SUBMITTED

The convention program progressed rapidly today with the submission of reports of various officers and governing bodies.

Mr. Gallmeyer in his address declared that the rank and file of the youth of the present day is as fine and chaste as that of any age. The whole youth movement is far from being law-breaking, he said. He expressed a belief that "there is a constant danger of certain groups forcing their conception of morality into laws and not only placing them upon our statutes, but writing them into the Constitution of our State and nation."

PROGRAM OUTLINED

A program for the future work of the league was outlined by the Rev. Ervin Umbach of Chicago, the organization's executive secretary.

"Our league," he said, "has a full program of endeavor that will appeal in its entirety or in its various parts to every young man and every young woman."

Prof. E. H. Englebrecht of Oak Park, Ill., international field secretary, reported that during the past year eighty-seven senior and forty-one junior societies were added to the league.

Coast Guards
Rescue Six in Disabled Boat

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (AP)—Near collapse from their experience, six persons, one a woman, were rescued by Coast Guardsmen off Point Reyes today after a day and a night in a disabled motor boat driven ashore Sunday in a heavy sea.

A Coast Guard cutter, standing by the wreck, was driven on the rocks.

Those saved included Dr. V. H. Podstata, of Pleasanton, owner of the boat and psychiatrist at the University of California medical college, who was washed into the surf while attempting to get a line to the Coast Guard cutter. The others were: Dr. Harvey B. Podstata, son of the psychiatrist; Mrs. Harvey Podstata and their young son; Layton Rice, Gilroy; Emmett O'Brien and Ray Kearns, both of Oakland.

The rescue climaxed an all-night search for the craft.

Plea Fails for
'Hickman Pupil'

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (AP)—The United States District Court of Appeal today denied a petition for a rehearing in the case of Yukata Fukunaga, under death sentence for the murder in Hawaii of young Gil Jamieson. The petition for rehearing has been requested by Attorney Eric Lyders, representing Fukunaga.

He declared the decision of the court had been applied erroneously and that errors had been permitted in the trial of the young Japanese slayer, who admitted that the career of William Edward Hickman, California murderer, influenced his act.

Trial of Three Chinese
Now Up to Washington;
Stimson to Make Ruling

WASHINGTON, July 15. (AP)—The question of whether Ying Kuo, the former Chinese Vice-Consul of San Francisco, his wife, and Sun Pao, Chancellor of the Consulate, will be tried in China or in the United States for opium smuggling, apparently shifted today from San Francisco to Washington.

Despite the fact the trio have been arrested on charges of Washington officials that their connection with the American government has not reached a decision on the request of Chinese Minister Wu that the trio be turned over to his government for prosecution.

Secretary Stimson said today a full announcement will be made on the matter as soon as a decision is reached. He added that the question of deportation does not figure in the case.

Unofficial circles interpreted this to mean that the return of the trio to China will be dependent on their voluntary waiving the right to remain in the United States which is held by foreigners who come into the country under official papers.

SACRAMENTO, July 15. (Exclusive)—Attendance in California's public schools, exclusive of universities, averaged 887,229 daily last term, according to a report issued today by the State Department of Education. In the elementary or grade schools, the average daily attendance was 646,214 and in the high schools, 212,539. There were 7218 others in daily attendance in junior colleges, 16,883 in special day and evening classes, 2315 in compulsory part-time classes and 1220 in special junior college courses.

Los Angeles county had approximately 30 per cent of California's school children. The report shows the average daily attendance there to be 238,104 in the elementary schools and 94,304 in the high schools, with 2287 in junior colleges.

San Francisco is exceeded by Alameda county for school attendance. The latter has 13,899 in the grade schools and 30,337 in high schools, as compared with the San Francisco total of 47,361 in the elementary schools and 16,970 in high schools.

Attendance in other counties in Southern California is as follows:

Freight Exceeds Passenger
Total for First Time

SACRAMENTO, July 15. (Exclusive)—California highway transportation companies paid taxes exceeding the $1,000,000 mark during the last fiscal year for the first time since the tax was inaugurated three years ago, according to an announcement made today by Diawell L. Pierce, secretary of the State Board of Equalization.

Showing an increase of 15.57 per cent in one year, collections from that source totaled $1,155,206.36. The gain was greater than for any other one group for which taxes are computed by the Board of Equalization.

California is the only State in which a tax on highway transportation companies is imposed in lieu of all other taxes. The tax consists of a 4 1/4 per cent levy on the gross receipts of passenger carriers and 5 per cent on conveyors of freight.

The heaviest gain was in freight carried by trucks. The yield from this source, totaling $668,822, was a gain of 21.58 per cent over last year.

Passenger carriers paid $586,384.14, a gain of but 9.67 per cent. This is the first year that freight payments have exceeded passenger receipts. It is regarded as significant by the board as indicating a possible loss by rail carriers in favor of motor carriers, although the statement regards the exact relationship as problematical.

When the tax was inaugurated in 1927 it brought but $807,480.

Herr Dornier Among Twenty-five Aboard Huge Plane

ALTENREIN (Switzerland) July 15. (AP)—The Dornier Company's new huge flying boat Do-X today demonstrated in test flights that she can maneuver in the air with only eight of her twelve motors going.

The Do-X even started from the water within twenty-eight seconds with eight motors and easily rose to a height of more than 100 feet. There were twenty-five persons aboard the flying boat and its freight while in the air was almost thirty-seven tons.

Herr Dornier himself made the flight for the first time. Besides thousands of spectators on land, there were dozens of airplanes circling about.

Herr Dornier declared himself eminently satisfied with the flying boat's performance. Capt. Von Schiller of the dirigible Graf Zeppelin was one of the first persons to greet him.

"I have appointed an Executor and Trustee whose resources total nearly one billion dollars"

That is what a prominent California business man told his wife after appointing Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings Association as Executor and Trustee under his Will. Financial responsibility figures heavily in the minds of successful business leaders when they choose the institution or individual who will carry on for them in the management of their estates. The large capital, wide experience, vast resources, and prestige of California's leading bank assures responsible, efficient administration, and the maintenance of the highest standards of management. Its great wealth and high integrity places the institution beyond the temptations that might easily come to an individual trustee under pressure of circumstances. Choose the most highly responsible successor you can find. Remember—the welfare of your heirs and the safety of all you have accumulated is at stake. Consult your attorney now. Have him draw your Will—and guarantee the proper handling of your estate by nominating California's largest bank as your Executor and Trustee.

VIOLET RAY

THROUGHOUT the entire Pacific Coast the story is the same. The swift and spectacular success of VIOLET RAY anti-knock Gasoline is creating a new record. In the few short months since its introduction, VIOLET RAY anti-knock Gasoline has had the most rapid rate of increase in demand ever given a new gasoline.

Last October the 3000 independent dealers who distribute General Petroleum products told their customers that a new and better motor fuel had come on the market... Violet Ray. One man told another, and he another, until thousands were spreading the word of Violet Ray and its better performance and greater economy. On every road and under every driving condition Violet Ray is proving that it is the superlative fuel for automobiles.

Violet Ray is anti-knock... but good in any car.

Violet Ray is pure... made without the addition of chemical compounds... poisonous or otherwise.

Violet Ray is unadulterated... nothing is added but the violet color, and that, only for your protection.

Start using Violet Ray today... and leave fuel troubles behind.

Product of the General Petroleum Corporation of California

Violet Ray is anti-knock... the superlative fuel for all types of motors. A million motorists are finding that they need not pay premium prices for fine performance. VIOLET RAY anti-knock Gasoline... today's best motor fuel... is sold for the price of ordinary gasoline.

TRAGIC ENDING FOR ROMANCE

Fire Warden Dies as Auto Plunges Into Canyon

Fiancee, Seriously Injured, Walks Miles for Aid

Couple Had Prepared to be Married in September

BAKERSFIELD, July 13.—Nearly decapitated when his automobile crashed down a 300-foot embankment in Pastoria Canyon, George McKenzie, 28 years of age, assistant Kern County Fire Warden, was instantly killed, and his companion, Mrs. Michaela to whom he was to have been married in September, was painfully injured shortly before midnight last night.

Mrs. Michaela is at the County Hospital here and examination revealed several broken ribs and serious body bruises. Injured as she was, Mrs. Michaela climbed the steep embankment and made her way two and one-half miles to the station of Forest Ranger Hall near Castaic Lake, where she reported the tragic mishap.

McKenzie was answering a call to the Castaic Lake district, where a devastating fire was reported to be raging. He asked Mrs. Michaela to accompany him on the lonely ill-fated ride.

DORIS HILL WINS ANOTHER LEAD

Paramount Actress Chosen to Play in "Divorce;" Dolores Del Rio May Appear in "Dove;" Irene Rich Has Stage Role

BY MURIEL BARCOCK

Leading roles are literally being showered upon Doris Hill, red-haired Wampas Baby star of 1928. Her latest assignment, announcement of which was made yesterday, is that of the principal romantic part in Paramount's dialogue production of "The Children," adapted from Edith Wharton's novel of modern divorce.

Only last week Miss Hill was cast as the ingenue lead in

"Darkened Rooms," Evelyn Brent starring. She just completed work in John Gilbert's "Olympia" for M-G-M, to which she was loaned by Paramount—and was seen recently in "The Studio Murder Mystery."

The assignment to "The Children" means that Miss Hill has a busy time ahead of her since production, with Lothar Mendes directing, starts in August, immediately following the close of work on the Brent vehicle.

FILMS PLANNED FOR DOLORES DEL RIO

Curiously, two pictures in which the Talmadge sisters appeared originally, are under consideration for Dolores Del Rio's first talking production.

The first is "The Dove" with Norma Talmadge played and the second is "Her Sister From Paris" in which Constance was seen. "The Dove" is considered the more probable choice of the two, although no definite decision will be reached until Dolores returns in about a month to Hollywood from the East where she is making personal appearances with "Evangeline."

A. H. Woods Play

Nones other than Irene Rich is to be starred on the local stage, according to a story told about town yesterday. Miss Rich is to have the leading role in a new play planned for Los Angeles or Hollywood production by A. H. Woods.

This charming favorite of the cinema recently completed a vaudeville tour and is now at work with Will Rogers in "They Had to See Paris," on the Fox lot. Woods recently paid a hurried visit to Hollywood, and it is thought that the play plans were cooked up at that time.

Two Songs Added

The success of Joan Crawford as a singer in "The Hollywood Revue of 1929" has led Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to insert a couple of brand-new vocal numbers in Miss Crawford's new starring vehicle, temporarily entitled, "Jungle." The first of these is "The Jungle Song," by Nacio Herb Brown and Arthur Freed. The second number, "That Wonderful Something Called Love," was written by Joe Goodwin and Lou Alger.

Team Reunited

Mary Brian is to be co-starred with Richard Arlen in Paramount's all-talking production of John Russell's South Sea island romance, "The Lost God." It was announced yesterday by B. P. Shulberg, general manager of the West Coast studio production. This is the romantic team of "The Man I Love," which will be reunited.

George Abbott, author-director, is writing the continuing story of the film going into production in the near future.

Miss Brian's activity record in all-talking pictures is equalling that of her career on the silent screen.

Weight and Inspection Bureau Declared Success

District Manager Reports on Two Months' Work

Says Savings Shown Both to Carrier and Shipper

BY WALDO DRAKE

Unqualified success of the local Weighing and Inspection Bureau of the United States Intercoastal Conference following its first two months of operation was reported yesterday by Morgan Hunt, district manager. Approximately 50,000 tons of west-bound intercoastal freight has been examined for classification by the staff of the local bureau, with a consequent saving of more than $15,000 in tariffs to steamship carriers and of a 15 per cent saving in charges to consignees, according to Mr. Hunt.

"The work of the bureau, both at Los Angeles Harbor and all other principal Pacific Coast ports, has been such a success that the conference plans to extend the service to both east-bound and coast-wise traffic," he declared. "The service was established to insure fair charges to both shippers and consignees as well as the steamship lines themselves."

FINDS MISCLASSIFICATION
"We are finding a great deal of misclassification in packages freight for Los Angeles and San Francisco delivery, to the extent that we have been increasing the tariffs of every ship from $250 to $750. This is due to the fact that the tariff is 15 per cent of the charges to shippers and consignees."

As instances of improperly classified shipments, Mr. Hunt pointed out that his staff last week found one shipment billed as "metal book ends," carrying a rate of $1.50 per 100 pounds, when upon examination the shipment was found to be gold-plated ash stands, carrying a rate of $10 per 100 pounds. In another instance, a shipment carried as glass, with a rate of $1.50, was found to be hydrometers, with a rate of $5 per 100.

RATE PEACE FORECAST
"This effort has already done a great deal toward stabilizing of the entire intercoastal industry," said Mr. Hunt, "so much, in fact, that we feel that the present threatened rate war and difficulty between two member lines will soon be settled amicably as a result." Mr. Hunt urged legislation to penalize false classification of intercoastal shipments to save charges. He pointed out that railroads are so protected by an Interstate Commerce Commission ruling levying a penalty of $500 and imprisonment for shippers falsely declaring character of shipments. Mr. Hunt is assisted at the local weighing and inspection bureau by J. C. Robertson and J. L. Purdin, both formerly rate experts with the Union Pacific System.

MONEY LEAKS BOOST BUDGET

Finner's Expenditures' Watchdog Relates How Small Items Drain Nation's Gold

By Gen. HERBERT M. LORR

WASHINGTON, July 15. (Exclusive)—Of course we were not unimpressed in the Budget Bureau in saving by co-ordination work. It was not until we had a considerable number of small items manufactured for war purposes and apparently for anything else. The war had ended and the containers were being sold. The war had ended and the containers were being sold. The war had ended and the containers were being sold.

CUT TO 3000

"Fifty thousand copies?" inquired a voice in obvious surprise, when one of the board called the department making the requisition. "Oh, no; there has been a mistake. We asked only 3000 copies."

The requisition was sent back to the official who had signed it. He explained that it was a typographical error, that the typist had added an extra cypher. The typist, however, didn't sign the requisition—a fact the official couldn't explain away.

Mistakes, of course, sometimes happen; illusion, too. Once the government saved money by producing an illusion. The Department of Agriculture needed a forestry exhibit showing four sets of mechanically operated woodmen sawing down trees. The mechanical apparatus for one set came within the sum available for the exhibit, but the cost of four sets was beyond it.

So the department installed a lone set of woodmen and placed mirrors about it so ingeniously that it appeared to be four sets. The arrangement of the mirrors attracted more attention than the four sets would. The illusion was a success and the government saved eighty thousand dollars.

Down to the minutiae of the government's circulatory system the germs of economy have crept, and annual savings are made in no small measure of tiny things. One branch of the Navy has substituted a good grade of chicken feathers for goose feathers in pillows. The sailors sleep just as soundly and a few more dollars repose in the Treasury.

MINOR SAVINGS
 Messengers at Washington have contributed to the cause by using over and over the same manila envelopes for letters. The Bureau of Mines at Pittsburgh saved $50 one year by manufacturing its own furniture and metal polish, doing so at one-third the cost of the commercial article.

So it goes. Investigate, co-ordinate and co-operate. They are not poetic words but in the Treasury they make a single that rhymes with tax reduction.

President Coolidge was always an adequate defense man, although he did not believe in appropriating unnecessarily for either Army or Navy. More than $1 in every $3 in the cost of running the Government, Budget Bureau analysis discloses, goes for Army and Navy. The exact percentage for the fiscal year 1929 is 17.08. A somewhat larger item covers the cost of past wars—military pensions, retirement pay, life insurance and so on.

These two items, both concerning national defense past and present, account for more than one-third of all money expended by the Treasury for ordinary government running expenses. The exact proportion for 1929 is 33.81 per cent. The next large item, interest on public debt, accounts for 16.99 per cent; and public debt retirement from ordinary receipts accounts for 14.62 per cent, a total of 31.65 per cent of expenditures attributable to the national debt.

The public debt was incurred almost wholly to meet the requirements of the nation's defense. Hence, some of our critics say, its cost should be added to the amount chargeable to the government because of defense past or present. Should that be done the total would run to 67.17 per cent.

WESTERN UNION BUSINESS GAINS

Traffic of Local Office for Six Months Reported

Increase Over 1928 Fixed at More Than 20 Per Cent

City Continues to Hold Third Rank in Total Volume

Officials of the Los Angeles office of the Western Union System announced yesterday that the volume of message traffic for the Los Angeles district during the six months ended June 30, last, increased more than 20 per cent over the volume for the first half of 1928, and that the business of the office continued to hold its rank as third in the country, exceeded only by New York City and Chicago.

During the six months' period, nine new branch offices have been opened in the Los Angeles territory while plans have been formulated for the opening of ten more within the next few months. Plans for the erection of a new limit night building expected to cost in the neighborhood of $1,500,000 are understood to be well under way, and while no official announcement has been made as yet regarding the location, it is generally believed the structure will rise on the corner of Broadway and Main streets. To provide temporary additional quarters pending the erection of this building the company has contracted for 10,000 square feet of office space in the Board of Trade Building and 5000 square feet in the Merchants Exchange Building.

Ordered for the operation of stock exchange tickers have recently been completely revamped so that the tickers are now running on an automatic system instead of on a manual basis. There are approximately 500 tickers in operation in Los Angeles carrying quotations from the various security, cotton and grain markets. The new system of handling 7,000,000 to 8,000,000 share days of the New York Stock Exchange. Before the cut-over it made, however, it will be capable of handling 10,000,000 to 12,000,000 share days of the New York Stock Exchange.

WESTERN UNION SYSTEM
NEW YORK, July 15. (Exclusive) Western Union Telegraph Company announced yesterday a net income for the quarter ended June 30, last, of $2,522,539, after all charges, including taxes, equal to $2.33 a share on 1,023,781 capital shares against $4,365,451 or $4.39 a share on 977,877 shares for the same period last year.

The new income for the six months totaled $7,908,333 or $7.30 a share on 1,023,781 capital shares. This compares with $7,355,138 reported for the first half of 1928, which was equivalent to $7.33 a share on 977,877 shares then outstanding. Gross revenue for the six months aggregated $72,619,094, against $70,776,478.

Stock of Credit Concern Slated for Distribution

Formal offering of an issue of 225,000 shares of no par common stock of American and Continental Corporation at $40 per share, will be made today by the Harris Forbes Corporation, the International Manhattan Company, Field, Glens & Co., and Bond & Goodwin & Tucker, while later in the week G. Brashers & Co. will market a $100,000 issue of Cramer Baking Company first mortgage 7 per cent sinking fund gold bonds, according to announcement yesterday.

The American and Continental Corporation stock carries stock-purchase warrants and two warrants will entitle the holder to subscribe to one share of common stock on or before June 30, 1932, at $50 per share. The corporation, which was organized in 1924 by various interests in the management of International Acceptance Bank, Inc., has devoted itself primarily to the granting of intermediate credits to European industrial enterprises.

Cramer Baking Company, a California corporation operating in San Diego and Imperial counties, for the first five months of 1929, showed net earnings equivalent to more than $4 a share. The interest requirements of this issue, it was stated, "The production of 60 per cent of the bread sold in Imperial county has forced the construction of a 21-cent plant which will be financed by the proceeds of this issue. Each bond will carry a detachable purchase warrant for common stock of the company, which will entitle the holder to subscribe to one share of common stock on or before June 30, 1932, at $50 per share."

Taylor Milling Stock Listed on Exchange

Common stock of the Taylor Milling Corporation of which there are 100,000 shares outstanding, has been approved for listing on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange by the board of governors of the exchange. The stock will be traded for the first time Wednesday.

The Taylor Milling Corporation is reputed to be the largest exclusive manufacturer and distributor of poultry feeds on the Pacific Coast and, in addition, manufactures a complete line of stock feed. Two main manufacturing and milling plants are operated in Los Angeles and Stockton and distributing warehouses are maintained at Petaluma, Monrovia and Colton. Net earnings for 1928 totaled $489,647, equal to $4.89 a share, against $412,228.17, or $4.12, in 1927, and $394,831.71, or $3.94 a share for 1926. An initial quarterly dividend of $2.12 cents a share, placing the stock on a $2.50 annual basis, was paid last May.

UTILITY HOLDING UNIT TENDERS DEBENTURES

General Public Service Company is tendering through Stone & Webster and Blodgett, Inc., Easternbrook & Co. and Tucker, Anthony & Co. a new issue of $10,000,000 gold debentures 5 1/2 per cent convertible series, due 1939, and priced at 102 and accrued interest to yield about 5.24 per cent, it was announced yesterday. The debentures are convertible into common stock listed on the New York Stock Exchange and application will be made to list the debentures. The company, organized in 1925 to hold and deal in securities of public service and other concerns, now owns well-distributed investments in fifty-five companies.

IVEY'S RISE AIDS OTHERS

Young Bankers Encouraged by Choice of New Head for Citizens' National; Started at Bottom

BY EARLE E. CROWE
Young bankers in Los Angeles are taking a fresh toe hold as they think of Herbert D. Ivey, newly elected president of the Citizens' National Bank. Scattered groups of earnest young clerks and hopeful minor officers from other banks were to be noticed yesterday noon loitering in the lobby to watch Mr. Ivey come from his private office to greet scores of his friends or to accept floral expressions from more distant admirers.

These young bankers in the outer circle of admirers all knew Mr. Ivey's story well. They saw before them the messenger boy of twenty-six years ago, who is living proof that presidents of banks do come from the ranks, and that bank directors are not always unaware of the ability of their own officers to fill the highest post.

HOPE REVIVED
Many of those silent watchers of the heavy handshakes and exchange of greetings around the new president's window tightened his belt another notch as he left for his own bank to resume the routine of his duties. They were not disappointed. They went to purchase a copy of Mr. Ivey's book, "Getting Ahead in the Bank," which is brimful of practical and sagacious advice to the young banker.

Banking has become such a large scale business that employees easily drift into the mental attitude of machine workers in the factories. They are frequently led to believe that their lot is hopeless; that enterprise and initiative and study are of no purpose except to rise to the position of a minor officer, after a long period of years. Many bank workers have come to believe that the senior officers of the great banks are mysteriously chosen by a select few from exalted positions of success in other lines.

It is true that bank executives sometimes have received their early training and made their record in other fields. But the great majority of bank presidents come from the ranks; have started at the bottom as Mr. Ivey did and advanced step by step through the exacting routine of duties that go to make a trained banker. Sometimes bank directors fill the post of the presidency from the outside, but only because nobody in their own bank has lifted his head above the crowd.

BEGINNERS WATCHED
Mr. Ivey tells the messenger boy in his book, "Getting Ahead in the Bank," that he is always under observation from the day he enters the bank for those indications that will classify or ostracize him. "You are foolishly cheating yourself when you do not put forth your best effort," Mr. Ivey advises. "Regardless of the salary received, the messenger boy must justify his position by his division of work, or the attitude of your fellow-employees, no one can afford to place on the market an inferior grade of goods, and the label of his own good name."

Another one of his helpful thoughts is the suggestion, "That the messenger boy is a good way to feel about your work. As a matter of fact it will not, although making tardiness a practice will result in the substitution of a wide-awake messenger in your place some fine morning."

The creed Mr. Ivey lays down in his book has followed him well. His brother, L. O. Ivey, has also traveled along the same path, almost in the footsteps of the new president. Ivey became a messenger boy in the same bank three and one-half months after Herbert Ivey started his career, and has filled all the important jobs along the line. At the same time the director of the Citizens' National elected the new president, they elevated L. O. Ivey to a senior vice-presidency, and now he becomes one of the chief advisers of his brother in the management of the bank.

C. Sumner James, who is the new executive vice-president of the Citizens' National, is another instance of a man who has gone through the mill and earned promotion step by step. He has specialized particularly in trust work.

Packers Join in Marketing Unit

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (Exclusive)—Globe Distributors, Inc., has been formed by representatives of nine western independent canners and packers to assist in the merchandising of products. The capitalization consists of 500,000 shares of $1 par common stock. The State Corporation Commission has authorized issuance of qualifying directors' shares and public offering of 400,997 shares at par. Among the concerns interested in the organization are: Kings County Packing Company; O. W. Hume Company; Ray's Canning Company; Hunt Brothers Packing Company; Pratt-Low Packing Company; Santa Cruz Fruit Packing Company; Filice & Ferrell Canning Co.; California Co-operative Canneries; and Manteca Canning Company.

Curtiss Sues in Court of Claims

WASHINGTON, July 15. (Exclusive)—A suit for $1,000,000 was filed today against the government with the United States Court of Claims by the Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Corporation charging infringement of patents. In the petition it was stated G. H. Curtiss received from the government in January, 1920, a patent giving him the right to manufacture and sell a new useful improvement to lubricating systems for airplane motors. The Curtiss Company now contends the War Department has manufactured oilage systems similar to those invented by Curtiss.

FINANCIAL LOAN HOUSE PAYS EXTRA

Pacific States Savings Earnings Mount for Six Months' Period

Disbursement of an extra dividend of 75 cents a share in addition to the regular quarterly of $1.82 1/2, payable the 15th inst., by State Guaranty Corporation, sole stock owner of Pacific States Savings and Loan Company, was announced yesterday by Robert S. Odell, director of finance of the former company and president of the latter.

The earnings of Pacific States Savings and Loan Company for the six months ended June 30, last, which accrued entirely to State Guaranty Corporation totaled $300,000 after allowance for Federal tax reserve, equal to approximately three and one-half times dividend requirements for the average number of preferred shares outstanding during the period, which was 24,000. These earnings were more than three and one-half times those for the corresponding period of 1928. After all deductions, the balance available to State Guaranty Corporation for dividend distribution was $236,333.21.

Placing this amount on an annual basis and allocating it in accordance with the participating provision, the net earnings accruing to the participating shares are equivalent to $17.50 per share on the average number outstanding during the period, it was stated. Pacific States Savings is expected in its history, according to the quarterly letter to stockholders. Since the first of the year the company's savings increased $12,248,704, of which only $4,710,287 resulted through purchase, the balance resulting through internal development. There are now 1,000,000 shares in operation in California and by the end of the month, the letter adds, resources of the company are expected to be more than $47,000,000.

CANADIAN MARCONI IN ANNUAL MEETING

MONTREAL, July 15. (Exclusive) Canadian Marconi Company at the annual meeting of stockholders today reported the net income for 1928 at $172,683, after all charges, including taxes, equal to 4 cents a share on 4,504,882 shares of capital stock outstanding, against $4,558, or 1 cent a share in 1927. Officials stated that the company is making good progress in all its branches.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, July 15. (Continued) Lower today owing to continued opposition in Louisiana and relatively heavy foreign supply. October broke down from the 18-cent level, making a new low for the present crop year. Although more buying developed around 18 cents, the market was not strong and closed mid-afternoon. At 10 o'clock prices were about 18 to 20 points net lower.

SENATOR KING INQUISITIVE

Questions Propounded to Tariff Hearing Witnesses Suggest Possible Fight on Merger Growth

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

(Copyright, 1933, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)
NEW YORK, July 15.—Senator King of Utah, who is in Washington attending the tariff hearings, continues to ask each witness demanding highly technical and intimate details of the financial set-up of the corporation which the witness represents. It is contended by many that the great growth of mergers in the last five years has been first suggested by bankers and not by operators of the companies. It is the contention of Senator King and others that altogether too much "profiteering in capitalization" is going on. Just what will develop as a result of the great mass of material which has been brought out as a result of the tariff hearings along this line only the future will tell. But there seems to be a device which may crystallize public opinion, favorable to some sort of an inquiry into all financial mergers.

Montague Norman, 58 years of age, governor of the Bank of England since 1926, the mystery man in world finance, is again in the United States. Where? Perhaps not half a dozen men in America know. But that the governor is here to discuss again with American financial officials, both private and governmental, a working understanding in Anglo-American finance will be generally believed.

Governor Norman, the son of a well-to-do English family, was educated both at Eton and King's College, Cambridge. In his college days he was a quiet, reserved, bashful young man, studious, not interested in society and cultivating but few friends. When the South African war came along, he enlisted and did conspicuous work in at least four battles, and was rewarded with the Distinguished Service Order. That was in 1901 and he was then 30. At the close of the war, he returned to London and became associated with a private banking house. He was a plunger and moved up step by step in that field until 1920, when he was asked to become governor of the Bank of England.

He is a bachelor, a great reader and plays the piano with rare skill. Music is his hobby—his avocation. Even now he has few friends and rarely goes to any purely social functions. He belongs to only one club, the Athenaeum of London. But in the world of finance, this quiet, modest, retiring Englishman is a power of the first magnitude.

Paxton Hibben at the time of his untimely death—by pneumonia last December—had completed three-quarters of a biography of William Jennings Bryan. Most of the material also for writing the other master had been compiled. C. Hartley Crutcher took over the job and the book will be published this fall. Claude G. Bowers, author of "Hamilton" and "Jefferson," and Harry E. Barnes, Smith College professor, have co-operated somewhat in the work too.

Paxton Hibben was formerly secretary to Senator Beveridge of Indiana. A graduate of Princeton, one-time secretary of the American Legion at Peircegrad, active new-

There were a few strong points among the industrials and specialties. International Business Machines selling up nearly 13 points to a record price, and Underwood typewriter stock a wide gain. American International, Fleischmann, Byproducts, General Asphalt, Continental Insurance and Macmillan also recorded new peaks, although utilities were generally under pressure of profit taking on last week's sharp advance. Consolidated Gas mounted a point higher into new territory, and American and Foreign Power soared 10 points.

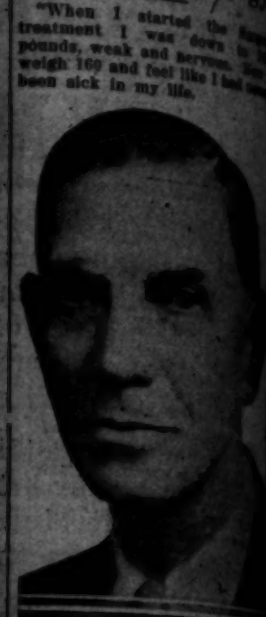

STEEL SAGS
Business of United States Steel, which lost about 4 points, was particularly unsettling. Allied Chemical, Allis-Chalmers, Auburn Auto and General Electric dropped 4 to 5 points, while such shares as International Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, Columbia Gas, United Corporation, National Dairy Products, Public Service of New Jersey and Anaconda Copper lost 2 to 3 points. Federal Mining dropped 25 points, then rallied 15, closing off 10. Crocker Radio and American Zinc and Lead were among issues touching new 1935 lows.

Wheat futures shot up 8 to nearly 9 cents a bushel on further bullish crop estimates from Canada and unfavorable weather in the Northwest. Corn mounted 2 1/2 to nearly 3 cents on bullish weather and decreased visible supply. Cotton, however, was under pressure, losing 1 1/2 to 2 cents and more on favorable weather and lower Liverpool cables. Foreign exchanges were firm, with sterling cables moving up 1-1/2 of a cent to $4.85 1-1/2.

FRED G. COOK

"When I started the treatment I was down to 100 pounds, weak and nervous. Now I weigh 160 and feel like I had been sick in my life."

"I am an interior decorator and employ eight men. I am pretty busy and have to keep good health. When I became weak, I was down to 100 pounds. Now I weigh 160 and feel like I had been sick in my life."

"The above statement was made by Fred G. Cook, of 40th St., who has had a long and successful career in the drug business. He is now a resident of Los Angeles for twenty-two years."

"Sargon Soft Soap Pills are the best laxative I ever took. I never have made me sick. I feel better and more energetic. I am telling my friends what this wonderful medicine did for me."

ALIENATION TRIAL GETS UNDER WAY
Jury Selection in Suit of Mrs. June Fawcett Begun; Husband to Testify

Selection of a jury to try the $100,000 alienation suit of Mrs. June Fawcett against Mrs. Harriet Binyon began in Superior Judge Edmonds' court yesterday. Attorneys Michel Narlian and Joseph Healdy, who are representing Mrs. Fawcett, later their claims for damages on the fact that their client was happily married twenty years before her husband met Mrs. Binyon. Then they asserted Mrs. Binyon took an advantage of Fawcett's affections. Mrs. Binyon denies all charges. Fawcett has been subpoenaed as a witness for the defense and probably will testify today.

BORES
I have always felt hot with resentment to read of courageous men taking their wives and families on junket trips out of public funds.

If they bore each other as much as they bore me, they carry along their own punishment for whatever iniquity may be involved.

BIG WOODPILES
One of the wonderments of this country is that you can get firewood without going out to find the lots that were left over from the time they put on the addition to the bathroom.

A CHARMING MAN
I don't know what the official qualifications of Gov. Young may be, but he has a personal charm that I have seen in few other public men. I would like him—if for no other reason than because his wife and two lovely daughters so obviously adore him. Pretty nearly anyone can be the Governor of a State, but it's a mark of rare distinction to be really admired by a flapper daughter.

CHILD WITNESS IN BABY DEATH

Young Neighbor of Valentis Testifies in Tragedy

Declares She Saw Infant's Mother Apply Match

Defendant Held Without Bail to Await Murder Trial

Introduced as a surprise witness by Deputy Dist. Atty. Stahlman, 10-year-old Esther Garcia, 603 Moulton street, yesterday testified that she saw Mrs. Josephine Valentis drop a lighted match into the baby-buggy which contained her 3-month-old baby. The woman, at the conclusion of her preliminary hearing before Municipal Judge Frederickson, was ordered held in the county jail without bail to await trial by Superior Court on first-degree murder charges.

Speaking in a barely audible tone, and apparently awed by the crowded courtroom, the child declared that she saw Mrs. Valentis at the baby-buggy with a lighted match as she started from her front porch to the grocery store. When she returned the buggy was afire, she said. Other witnesses named as to the baby being burned to death.

Detective Lieutenant Condofer, from the stand, related the mother's asserted confession made the night of the tragedy. "She said she was married last April and that if her husband had done the right thing this never would have happened," the officer testified. "She told me that her husband wouldn't give her money for the baby's milk, and when taken to her home at 600 Moulton street, showed us where she scratched the match on the sidewalk and how she dropped it in the baby-buggy. She wanted to put the baby in a nursing home and go to work, but said her husband wouldn't allow it. She admitted that she didn't like the baby." Mrs. Rose Valentis, mother-in-law of the accused woman, testified that Josephine did not like the baby and that she pinched and slapped it many times. Three times, she said, the young mother left her home each time remaining away for about a week and refusing to tell where she had been when she returned. The baby was burned to death on the 8th inst. in its buggy, which was in a driveway between the Valentis house and garage, Stahlman established.

Hearing Delayed on Injunction of Union Group

Hearing on an injunction proceeding growing out of a split in the organized ranks of local carpenters was postponed by Superior Judge Gates yesterday for one week by stipulation of Attorney Victor Ford Collins for the plaintiff, and James S. Roche and Jerome Kann for the defendants.

The action was brought by the newly elected officers of Local No. 1602, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, against officials and former officials of the union here and in San Francisco. This injunction suit affects about 1400 carpenters employed in and about motion-picture studios, and is an effort by a newly elected group of officials to protect their organization against what they assert is unauthorized interference by U. B. C. officials.

PLANE INDUSTRY SURVEYED

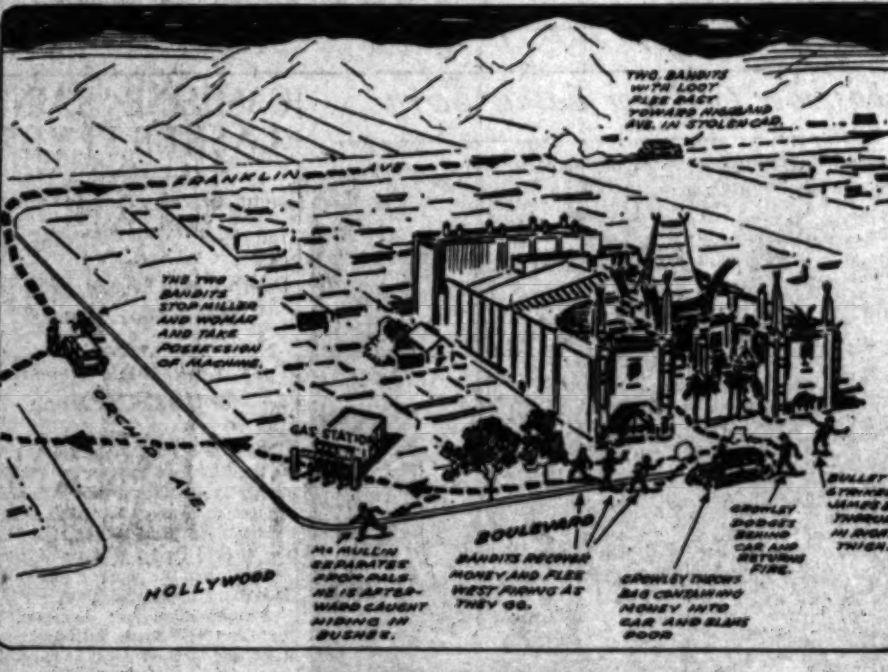

Curtis Publications' Expert Who Forecast Auto Trend in 1913 Now Looks to Sky

Los Angeles is to be the first city and the Pacific Coast the first section to come under the survey of Charles Coolidge Parlin, head of the division of commercial research of the Curtis Publishing Company, who arrived here in a new trimotored aviation laboratory yesterday. Mr. Parlin, who conducted a 1913 plane, thence to Portland and Seattle.

GOES BY PLANE NOW
In his survey of the automobile industry the Curtis representative conducted it in an automobile and covered more than 40,000 miles of travel and interviews with 260 manufacturers and 600-dealers. The survey consumed a year.

This time he is starting out in a trimotored Ford, specially equipped for the purpose, and though he plans to make his investigation equally as exhaustive, the time required will be much less, he anticipates. With him on his arrival here yesterday were Fred Bremier, his assistant, and H. J. Eustace, San Francisco manager for the Curtis company. The giant Ford plane is being piloted by Lieut. A. W. Gorton, on leave of absence from the United States Navy. Following a study of conditions here during the next few days, the survey party will fly to San Fran-ly, the bullet whizzing by the detective's head. A second bandit opened the door of Crowley's machine and extracted the sea bag containing the money. All three bandits then ran toward Orchid avenue, near which the theater is located on Hollywood Boulevard. Crowley stepped out from behind the auto and returned the bandits' fire. Bullets whistled back and forth as the detective pursued the trio through a gas station on the corner.

One of the bullets struck a bystander, James B. Thorup, 23, a missionary, of 8532 1-2 South Olive street, in the right thigh. At this point McMullen is said to have separated from his pals, each running across Orchid avenue and dodging between houses.

Further up the street toward Franklin avenue the two bandits ran out into the thoroughfare again and stopped Miller and Womar with flourished weapons. "Get out, both of you, quick, or we'll kill you!" they cried. Miller and Womar, who peacefully had been seeing Hollywood, quickly complied with the demand. The bandits leaped into the machine and drove it at a mad pace around the corner of Franklin toward High land avenue. They were not seen again.

In the meantime officials at the theater had telephoned Hollywood police. Several squads of officers and detectives were dispatched by Captain of Detectives Wallis and were deployed to form a net around the scene of the robbery. Within the next few minutes Detective Lieutenants Jaeger, Evans and Hovory caught McMullen, who is accused of holding up the teller of a bank at Pico and Figueroa streets. "I hope we have many other officers like you," said the Mayor.

INQUIRY IN CLOSING OF BANK BEGUN

Action Delayed Week to Allow Formation of Plans to Protect Investors

An inquiry by the District Attorney's office into the circumstances responsible for the closing of the Pan-American Bank last week was begun yesterday by Dep. Dist. Atty. Hugh McLaane. The action will be taken for one week, with the understanding that meanwhile those concerned develop a plan which will prevent the loss of any money to investors in the Pan-American Company, a subsidiary of the bank. Yesterday H. U. Helm, former vice-president of the company, and John A. Vaughn and F. L. Wood, former directors, spent several hours in conference with McLaane. Upon the closing of the bank last week by State officials, Dist. Atty. Pitts ordered his investigators to seize the books of the Pan-American Company, precipitating definite action in an undercover investigation which had been under way for six months.

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES TO SELL POWER BOAT

The power boat Gloria H. will be sold at public auction at the warehouse of Fairbanks, Morse & Co., East San Pedro, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. It is announced by United States Marshal Sittel. MAYOR CONGRATULATES MOTORCYCLE OFFICER Mayor Porter yesterday called Motorcycle Officer Boody into his office and congratulated him upon his capture Saturday of Jack Smith, who is accused of holding up the teller of a bank at Pico and Figueroa streets. "I hope we have many other officers like you," said the Mayor.

JAILED SUSPECT DENIES ROBBERY

Gun Fight Near Grauman's Theater Described

Auto Stolen by Two Escaped Bandits Vanishes

Bystander Shot in Thigh by Wild Bullet

Questioning of Lawrence McMullen, 27 years of age, and search for the automobile of two Ohio tourists were foremost late yesterday in the police investigation of the $15,000 robbery and gun battle which took place at the entrance to Grauman's Chinese Theater in Hollywood shortly after 9 a.m. between Detective Lieutenant Hugh A. Crowley, acting as special messenger for the Fox Theater, and a trio of bandits. The automobile was taken by McMullen's secreted confederates from George L. Miller and W. Womar of East Liverpool, O., a block distant from the theater a few moments after the two men had exchanged shots with Crowley. McMullen, who had become separated from them, according to police, was captured a few minutes later running across a vacant lot.

McMullen denies implication in the robbery, stating that he ran when he heard the shooting. He was identified by Crowley, however, as one of the trio of bandits and detectives report the recovery of a revolver he is said to have thrown away as he attempted to escape.

ROBBERY DESCRIBED

The robbery was one of the most sensational in months. Crowley, who has acted as special messenger for the Fox Theater for the last six years, said he was just leaving the theater when the hold-up occurred.

"When I left the box office I placed the money, about $15,000, and a large quantity of cashed tickets, in a sea bag. I walked toward my car, which was parked directly in front of the lobby. I had only taken a few steps when I noticed that three men were closing in on me from both sides. Before I had time to decide what to do they leveled revolvers and one of them commanded me to hand it over. "For a moment I hesitated," Crowley continued his report, "then I ducked, flung the bag in my car and slammed the door, thinking that it would automatically lock. But the latch was free. "Then I dodged around behind my car, pulling my gun from a shoulder holster as I took cover behind the sea bag." At this point one of the bandits opened fire, according to Crow-

PLANS FOR FILM RELIEF MAPPED

Withdrawal From Chest Will

Mary Pickford Urges Charity
Ball As One Event

Short Talking Picture to Raise Funds, Also

A charity ball, a series of twelve short talking pictures and possible participation in the National Vaudeville Artists' annual midnight benefit performance will be the three principal channels through which the Motion Picture Relief Fund of America, Inc., this year expects to replenish its coffers, it was announced yesterday by A. W. Stockman, secretary. The announcement was in the form of a resume of the decisions reached at the fifth annual meeting of the fund at Mary Pickford's beach home at Santa Monica.

The ball, according to Stockman, is the pet plan of Miss Pickford, who was re-elected president at the meeting. She suggested it as a source of revenue following her announcement that the fund has tendered its resignation from the Community Chest, effective October 31, next. The resignation, she pointed out, was necessitated by the fact that the fund's demands are beyond what the Chest can be expected to provide. Also, she explained, the rules of the Chest prevent the fund from staging benefits or seeking private subscriptions. Connel Nagel was appointed chairman of the ball committee to further the project.

PLAN OUTLINED

The plan to raise money through the short talking films, it developed, has been under way for some time, and was outlined at the meeting by Miss Pickford, M. C. Levee and Frank E. Woods. The pictures are to be produced and contributed gratis by twelve studios and will be released at the rate of one each month. The distribution operation being the only cost charged against the gross revenue from them.

Regarding participation in the N.V.A. benefit performances, it was decided to confer with officials of that organization and make a request for a share of the proceeds on the score that the programs, in a great measure, are made up by motion-picture players in and about Los Angeles. It is an agreeable coincidence, it was pointed out, that William Fox, first vice-president of the fund, is president of the N.V.A. benefit committee, recently having succeeded E. F. Albee.

Stockman's report further revealed that Frank E. Woods, chairman of the executive committee, announced at the meeting that Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Joseph M. Schenck, M. C. Levee, Donald Crisp and Adolph Zukor recently have made bequests in their wills in favor of the fund, and that Miss Pickford was active in urging all wealthy members of the colony to do likewise.

In addition to Miss Pickford, other officers re-elected at the meeting are William Fox, first vice-president; Joseph M. Schenck, second vice-president; Will H. Hays, third vice-president; Cecile B. De Mille, fourth vice-president; Donald Crisp, treasurer, and A. W. Stockman, secretary. The total enrollment of the fund is 280 actors, directors, writers and executives.

JURY FAILS IN COLLINS POLICE SUIT

Judge Orders Discharge
in $55,000 Damage Case
Against Capt. Jones

Unable to agree, the jury considering the $55,000 damage suit of Mrs. Christine Collins against Captain of Police J. J. Jones, was discharged at 10 o'clock last night by Superior Judge Vincent.

The original action, named Chief of Police Davis and Capt. Jones as defendants, but the complaint was dismissed as to Davis yesterday at the conclusion of the arguments by attorneys.

Following this dismissal order the jury retired to debate the action against the remaining defendant. It was stipulated that there would be a verdict by 10 p.m., there would be no objection to discharging the jury.

Mrs. Collins sued for damages against the police officials because she was incarcerated in the insane ward of the County Hospital for five days when she refused to accept another boy as her son, Walter. Gordon Stuart Northcott later was convicted of murdering the missing lad.

MRS. A. G. GRISWOLD
LAID TO FINAL REST

Funeral services for Mrs. Betta Griswold, wife of Albert J. Griswold, an employee in the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue and mother of A. Clay Griswold, branch manager of The Times, were conducted at 2 p.m. yesterday at the Ruppe Mortuary, 900 West Washington street. Burial followed in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. The Griswold home is at 2849 South Raymond avenue. Mrs. Griswold leaves a daughter, Mrs. Sarah O. McManus, and a second son, E. Claud Griswold.

Alice Eagan, aviatrix, went before Superior Judge Crawford yesterday and asked for a divorce because her husband, E. I. Eagan, a writer, stopped writing when he married, and said he expected she would support him.

"Don't you know the earnings of a wife are community property?" Judge Crawford asked severely.

Mrs. Eagan's chin quivered and she looked exactly as though she were going to cry.

"And that the Supreme Court has ruled that if a man don't work and his wife does, he can claim half her wages and she can't complain of non-support."

"I didn't know that, judge," said Mrs. Eagan, and her attorney, Maurice G. Sparling, looked like he was going to make a speech.

"Well, here's where I take issue with the Supreme Court," replied Judge Crawford. "You get your divorce anyway. I don't think the Supreme Court intended that women should begin supporting their husbands."

William C. Humphrey, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, who is here to conduct a corporation hearing, will be entertained at a luncheon today given by President Randall of the Chamber of Commerce.

The government hearing at which Mr. Humphrey will preside will begin today at 10 a.m. at the Federal Building and is concerned with a complaint of restraint of trade through price fixing on face powder. The hearing will require about three days, according to Mr. Humphrey, who came here from Seattle. At the close of the hearing he will return to his office in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Humphrey was met at the train yesterday by a group of officials and escorted to his hotel. Over 100 invitations were issued for today's luncheon, which is to be held in the chamber's main dining room, according to Secretary-Manager Arnold. A number of city, county, State and Federal officials, with several leading business men are expected to attend the noon-day reception.

WIDOW SUE FOR HEAVY HEART BALM

Complaint Asks $250,000 for Assorted Breach of Promise to Marry

Reversing the usual procedure in heart-balm cases, Earl H. Herron yesterday brought suit in Superior Court for $250,000 damages for assorted breach of promise against Julia B. Bergin, reputed wealthy widow.

According to Herron's complaint, he proposed marriage to Mrs. Bergin in March, 1927, but in October, 1928, she had a change of heart and declined to go through with her asserted promise.

Because of the declared breach of the defendant, Herron asserts his heart has been damaged. His attorney is Francis D. Adams.

BANKER WRITES OF HAWAII TRIP

Graves Sees Gov. Judd
Inauguration

S.S. City of Honolulu Given
High Praise

Quaint Custom of Bearing
Leis Admired

A description of an Hawaiian gubernatorial inauguration, worth of praise for the Los Angeles Steamship Company, and a commentary on the tendency of all Americans, especially the ladies, to overeat, are among the diversified contents of a letter received in Los Angeles yesterday from Jackson A. Graves, president of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank of Los Angeles, who is in Honolulu seeking recovery from his recent serious illness.

Before he had even disembarked from the U. S. City of Honolulu on which he left here June 23, last, Mr. Graves was tendered an invitation by wireless to attend the inauguration of Gov. Judd, according to the letter. The radio message, he wrote, was from Princess David Kawananakoa, who was a school mate of the banker's daughter some years ago.

GOVERNOR INAUGURATED

"So without time to change my clothes or slick up," the letter read in part, "I went to the inauguration which was held in front of the old palace. High Sheriff Lane sat next to me, introduced himself and pointed out all the celebrities present. The ceremonies were very impressive."

"Chief Justice Perry administered the oath of Gov. Judd who then delivered his inaugural address. He delivered a very sensible and patriotic address and I am satisfied from the looks of him that he is going to carry on as all patriotic people would desire him to do. After the address there was a military salute of seventeen guns. Then the Royal Hawaiian Band played the National Hawaiian air and the Star Spangled Banner."

The lei, native symbol of hail and farewell, made a profound impression on the convalescent banker—an impression that was not, however, without its touch of humor.

TUG BRINGS LEIS

"As we approached the wharf a tug came out to greet us bearing many people, among them a Mr. Dennison, who decorated Mrs. Graves and myself with leis. Princess Abby also sent out some, as did many other friends, and when I disembarked I was more highly decorated than a prize winner at a State or county fair. It must be quite a task to make up these leis, even here where blooming plants are so numerous."

The trans-Pacific voyage was enjoyable, Mr. Graves stated, with splendid weather all the way. He described the City of Honolulu as a magnificent vessel, with service in all that could be desired.

The meals, in his opinion, are excellent, and the help most attentive and accommodating.

"We had quite a full passenger list," he explained, in preface his good-natured indictment of Americans for their excessive eating, "and in studying them for six days I came to the conclusion that as we grow older we take on too much flesh. The ladies especially, in their present style of dress, display their overgrowth more than the men do. I saw arms which below the shoulder in many instances equalled the size of an ordinary man's thigh."

STORE OFFICIAL GOES UNDER KNIFE FOR APPENDICITIS

Benjamin F. Strauss, vice-president and merchandise manager of the May Company, was operated on for an acute attack of appendicitis at the Good Samaritan Hospital early yesterday morning.

He had been rushed to the operating table in an ambulance from his home at 146 Rosemore avenue. The operation was performed by Dr. Maurice Kahn.

Dr. Kahn stated that for awhile Mr. Strauss' condition was critical but that there is every indication that he will recover. According to Mrs. Strauss her husband had just retired when he was seized with the attack.

Mr. Strauss came to Los Angeles eight years ago from the East. He has taken up his abode with the May Company since that time and is well known in merchandising circles.

AWARDS MADE FOR BEST ELK DECORATIONS

The Elks are gone and today the hunting and flags are piled in dejected heaps, but eight organizations are swelling their collective chests as winners of the award for the best-decorated buildings and store fronts.

A silver wall plaque has been given to the Biltmore as its reward for having the best display of Elk banners and hunting, and also to J. W. Robinson, for the best decorated department store; the May Company for its show window; the Coulter Dry Goods Company for its retail display; and to the Pacific Mutual Building for its striking antlered ensemble. The owners of the Security Title Insurance Building, the Walter F. Story Building and the Freeman Building were given honorable mention on the same score.

SUIT INTERVENTION DENIED

Judge Declares Elwood Oil Field Litigation Too Far Advanced to Allow Complications

Right to intervene in the suit being waged by Warren K. Deuel, oil man, against the Rio Grande Oil Company and the Barnsdall Oil Company over the development of the Elwood oil field, near Santa Barbara, yesterday was denied David M. Anderson and C. W. Parsons by Superior Judge Yankwich, before whom the case is being tried.

Deuel is suing the oil companies for a share of the profits derived from the field, which he asserts he discovered. In his complaint, he maintains he signed a release agreement with the Rio Grande Oil Company for $2500 on the representation that no oil was likely to be produced. Later a well was brought in. Originally seeking damages and a rescission of the agreement, he was instructed by the court to choose between the two courses and chose the latter. The two intervenors claimed they put Deuel in touch with Hugh Martin, agent for the owners of the field.

Cards of invitation are being received from Mr. and Mrs. Oscar May Souden for the marriage of their attractive daughter, Miss Orine Marie Souden to Edward Austin Calvert Hammond, Jr., the ceremony to take place Tuesday the 30th inst., at high noon in Saint Brendan's Church, West Third street, and to be followed by a reception and wedding breakfast for the bride party, relatives and a few close friends only, at the home of the bride's parents, 2190 Pomer Drive, Los Feliz Heights.

Many lovely prenuptial affairs are being given in honor of this popular bride-elect, Mrs. Cameron Livingston Thom and her sister-in-law, Miss Virginia Thom, giving a luncheon tomorrow afternoon at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron De Hart Thom, 651 Mulfield Road.

Both Mrs. Thom and Miss Thom are to be in the bridal entourage.

Birthday Celebration

Celebrating the joint birthday anniversaries of her husband and William Russell Neal, John Ward Gibson entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner party at his home, 1854 West Boulevard, Sunday evening. The table was centered by a low broad bowl of yellow summer flowers, the same color scheme being effectively carried out in the tall whip candles and other appointments. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bennett, Mrs. Alexander Haynes Levy and Mrs. Bert Lee, the latter a niece of Mr. Gibson, who for the past two years has made her home in Albuquerque, N. M.

All Day Party

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Frankel entertained with a beach party at their Santa Monica home, La Casa Sogno, Sunday in honor of Maestro and Mme. Bernardino Molinari.

The guests included Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Rodinich, Miss Harriet Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Viani, Mr. Viani is the music critic of the Kansas City Star, sent out to cover Bowl events; Mr. and Mrs. Erwin H. Furman, Mrs. Albert Griffith Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tipton.

Hollywood Bowl Activities

The auditorium of Barker's will be the setting of the second appreciation recitals of the Hollywood Bowl this afternoon, when at 2:30 o'clock Miss Sarah Ellen Barnes will give a resume of the week's concerts, with Shirley Boyce, pianist, assisting artist. Following the program, many parties will be given by members of the Hollywood Women's Club, Mrs. Alfred Bartlett, president, and the Junior Auxiliary with Mrs. C. S. Isaac, leader. Mrs. Bernard Brown, and the MacDowell Club, with Mrs. A. H. Peabody, president.

De Santia-Griese

A wedding unusual in the beauty of its appointments, the high historical background and connections of its participants was that of June 29, when at 1 o'clock Miss Maria Christina De Santia, daughter of Senator Don and Donna Pascual de Santia, became the bride of Lieut. Arthur Adolph Griese, U.S.N., whose home is in Cincinnati, O.

The bride's mother is the daughter of Gen. Manuel Santibanez, who was Governor of the State of Puebla, Mex., and popular in the social and military life of the regime of Porfirio Diaz, one-time dictator of Mexico.

Lieut. Griese, who was graduated with the class of 1924 from Annapolis, has been appointed naval attaché to the American Embassy at Tokyo.

The impressive ceremony was performed by Father Michael Lee.

Mercolized Wax Keeps Skin Alive—Young

You can keep your skin young, smooth and natural by using pure Mercolized Wax. It beautifies the complexion by gently flaking off the thin outer layer of dead skin cells, bringing in view the youthful loveliness beneath. Such ugly blemishes as freckles, whiteheads, and spots, completely disappear. Your new complexion is gloriously alive, young and natural. Try Mercolized Wax today. Mercolized Wax brings out the hidden beauty. To reduce wrinkles and age lines, bathe the face daily in a lotion made of 1 ounce powdered saffron and 1 half pint witch hazel. At all drug stores.—Advertisement.

of the Cathedral chapel at 6306 Lindenhurst avenue, the Santia residence here.

The residence is of Moorish architecture. The living room in which the wedding took place has the appearance of a monastery. One end of it was banked with white gladioli, carnations and gardenias, with tall white candles at each side and a bell of white gardenias was suspended in the center, under which the bride party stood.

A silver crucifix presented to the bride by Father Lee was used in the ceremony. The bride was given away by William Litchford. The wedding procession and recessional was played by an orchestra under the leadership of Alexander Boricoff, cellist of the Philharmonic Orchestra, including "Ave Maria" by Gounod as a cello solo during the services.

The bride, who wore a beautiful gown of rare and exquisite lace made by nuns in the Convent of Viscayas and having been in the family for generations also wore the traditional Spanish comb and mantilla and her bouquet was of white gardenias and orchids.

Mrs. Dewey Beals was the matron of honor, Salvatore de Santia served as best man, and other attendants included Mrs. Pascual J. Scaperlanda and Mrs. Thomas M. Scaperlanda of San Antonio, Tex., Miss Annette Dupuis and Mrs. Salvatore de Santia, Little Dorothy Genevieve de Santia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore de Santia, was the flower girl.

The attendants wore gowns of tea rose-yellow, apple green, pale pink and light blue, and carried bouquets of sweet peas in colors contrasting with their gowns. The little flower girl wore a dainty white chiffon frock with blue forget-me-nots. The Senora Santianes de Santia wore a beaded gown of French chiffon in black.

A reception followed the ceremony and a buffet supper was served by Senor E. Manque, a chef who has been in the Santia family for many years and who, previous to that, was in the service of His Royal Highness, King Alfonso of Spain.

The banquet table was decorated in the Spanish motif.

Lieut. and Mrs. Griese departed Sunday evening, June 30, for a honeymoon trip East. They will be gone two or three months, and will return to Los Angeles, before leaving for Lieut. Griese's post in Japan.

Wives Entertained

Wives of out-of-town college professors, who are on the visiting faculty at the summer session of the University of Southern California will be entertained by the Faculty Wives Club of the university at a tea tomorrow afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock at La Venta Inn, Palo Verde Estates. Mrs. Rufus Von KleinSmid is president of the club and Mrs. Lawrence M. Riddle is chairman of the hospitality committee and in charge of the tea. Guests of honor will include Messrs. Malcolm Hayes Bissell, William Paxton Durbin, Thomas Nixon Carver, John Harrington Cox, Forest C. Ensign, Norman Penton, Howard Hanson, Edward L. Hardy, Harlan Cameron Hines, James Alton James, Henry Carrington Lancaster, Charles F. Lindley, George Nivon, William M. Proctor, Kewon Sarafian, Graham Henry Stuart and Albert A. Trever.

Assisting Mrs. Riddle in completing arrangements are members of the Faculty Wives Club including Misses Frank C. Toulton, Allan C. Sedgwick, Lester B. Rogers, Ralph Tyler, Wellington Arthur, Wye A. C. La Touche, W. H. Hill, Wilbur Long, Horatio Cogswell and Gilbert Giddings Benjamin.

Summer Plans

Mrs. Stoney L. Dement of 840 South Masselin avenue, who has been spending the summer with her two small sons, Lester and Donald, at Lake Arrowhead, made a brief visit to Los Angeles during the past week. Thursday she entertained a group of her Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority sisters for luncheon at the Masonic Club. The guests included Miss Helen Haller, statistical secretary of the University of Southern California, and Misses Verne W. McKinney, Harold Graham, V. G. Phelps, W. J. McKenna and Horace F. Berry.

Following the luncheon, the guests attended a bridge party at The Castle in Hollywood, given for the active and alumnae chapters of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority. At the recent convention held by the sorority at Cornell University two members of the Los Angeles alumnae chapter were given national officers. They are Mrs. Verne W. McKinney, who was appointed district examining officer, and Miss Helen Haller, district alumnae adviser.

Bowl Festivities

Hollywood hospitality will not permit its Bowl artists any opportunity to spend money on food, apparently. Where a constant round of luncheons, teas and dinners have made the kitchen range an obsolete article in the apartment of the visiting maestro and virtuoso and their charming spouses, it now appears that they also are to be deprived of the use of the electric toaster and coffee percolator.

Two breakfasts in the current week, arranged in honor of the celebrated visitors, already have improved things with the facility of the electric toaster and coffee percolator. Breakfasts are to be no more private than the other gourmandish occasions.

The first of these takes place this morning at 8 o'clock in the pretty tea garden of the Bowl. It is the second of a series of Tuesday morning coffee-cup confabs, to celebrate the inauguration of the week's programs at the Bowl and to do special honor to the scholars of the current Friday night. In this case, Elly Ney, pianist, is to be paid this tribute. She has not been heard in Los Angeles since 1926, when she made her one and only appearance here at Philharmonic Auditorium.

Mme. Ney, a grandniece of Marshal Ney of Napoleonic fame, will be surrounded by a coterie of distinguished fellow-artists, who are here because of Bowl engagements, including Maestro Molinari and his talented wife; Alfredo San-Malo and the beautiful Constanza; Mr. and Mrs. Max Panteleff; Michel

About the House

Use salt and vinegar to brighten brass.
An iron that is too hot will fade colors.
Washcloths should be boiled once a week to be germless.
The most expensive linoleum will not look well on the floor if laid incorrectly.
Sprinkle the insides of new kid gloves with talcum powder and they will be much easier to get on. Put the right one on first so that the best hand is the first one gloved and can help the less artful left hand.

GUIDING YOUR CHILD

A TOO GOOD EXAMPLE

By Mrs. Agnes Lyne

John is a more than usually charming young man, but rather a trial in the home.

"My dear," he says to his wife, "will you put my shirt studs into my shirt for me? You know I never can manage it without wrecking the shirt." Or again: "I wish you would shampoo my hair. I can't get the soap out."

When his wife needs new shelves in the pantry or wants an electric connection fixed she calls in the carpenter or the electrician, to whom during the course of the year she pays many dollars.

John is as incompetent with his hands as he is clever and delightful with his mind. One suspects him of taking positive pride in his awkwardness and of using it as a pleasant means to being waited upon. But it is obvious that he also is a little ashamed.

One day I think I found out how John came to be so helpless.

"When I was a kid," he said, "I admired my father more than anybody and I wanted to be just like him. Dad could do everything. He could shoe a horse, play football or build a boat. He used to take me around with him a good deal."

"He always wanted me to shine his athletic shoes for him. He expected me to be just as skillful as he was. But whenever I tried to do something dad would stop me and correct me. Then, because he couldn't stand my bungling, he would take the job out of my hands and finish it himself. He was so competent that whatever I attempted seemed botched in comparison."

Many children suffer thus from parents who are impatient of their children's crude efforts along lines in which they themselves have achieved a high degree of perfection.

When you set out to teach your child it is better not to know too much. The discrepancy between his ability and yours is likely to be crushing. Remember, the best sort of teaching is that which appears to be an enterprise in common learning.

Rainy Wash Days

The lines in the basement become very crowded when we must hang the wash indoors. Wooden clothes hangers come in handy to hold dresses, nightgowns, etc., that otherwise would take up considerable space. They dry in the right shape, too, and are therefore easier to iron.

CHILDREN SHOULD BE TAUGHT BY MODERN METHODS

Mrs. M. P. H. writes:

"There is a subject I should like to have you discuss in your column and that is, what to teach children of preschool age. Many mothers teach their children the alphabet as soon as they are old enough to repeat it. Why, if they teach their children, don't they study the new methods of teaching? I have taught school and I have friends who teach. I know that it does not help the child in school to know the alphabet. In fact, some teachers think it is a handicap, and this is not taught in the first or second grade. The children learn to read the whole word at sight. I know this method of teaching worries a lot of parents, but they should get books on the subject from the library. Then they would not teach the children useless things."

"I think it would be better to teach a child to blow his nose, to cover his mouth and nose when sneezing or coughing, to put on his own rubbers or wraps, and a few more things like that."

"My four children are all under school age and they are not being taught anything that makes them seem especially brilliant in company. They do not know long poems by memory, how to spell, or anything like that. But I am teaching them to be independent. I am teaching them to use their imaginations in enjoying nature, the frost, the storms, moonlight, stars, the mystery of birth and death. They die in dirt and sand. They run and shout and grow. They love their story hour at night. They like Mother Goose rhymes and Robert Louis Stevenson's 'Child's Garden of Verses.' I would rather have them wondering about the author than memorizing the book itself."

"Don't you think it is better to know where one can find the things one wants than to have our minds filled with things we never use?"

"By the way, I find that sewing a button on a bright-colored thread on the front of the child's blouse saves the discouragement of finding when all on that they are on backward. One of my lots did not like to dress herself. I found that by telling her she could help me in the kitchen, she simply flew into her clothes. She would rather cook than anything else."

"Where could I find the simple things one should know about etiquette for children?"

I agree heartily with all your ideas. We handicap children by teaching them letters and modern

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Rheumatism)

Question: Mrs. H. J. C. writes:

"No matter how much work I do, I do not seem able to perspire. Also, I suffer a great deal from rheumatism."

Answer: Those who have any kind of rheumatism always have difficulty perspiring. I believe this is due to the rheumatic toxemia which seems to poison the body to such an extent that the pores of the skin do not open freely. If you will get rid of your rheumatic poison through dieting, and increase the health of your skin by frequent bathing, you will soon find that you will begin to perspire freely. When copious sweating finally starts it is a sure sign that you have reduced your rheumatic diathesis, and you will be well on the road to recovery.

(Wasting Diseases)

Q: H. B. asks: "With what diseases does one lose flesh and strength?"

A: Tuberculosis, cancer and most of the deficiency diseases, such as scurvy, rickets, etc.

Q: (Growth on Spine)

A: Mrs. C. E. asks: "Could you suggest the orange fast alone for a growth on the spine under the intestines?"

A: An orange juice fast is always indicated in the treatment of any abnormal growth where an operation is not advisable. If the growth is not cut out, it must be absorbed and eliminated through the blood stream. Fastings relieve the body of the burden of assimilation and the building of tissues, and gives the bodily forces more chance to eliminate toxins or any abnormal growths.

educators deplore letters on blocks, preferring them plain for exactly that reason. Words should be learned as a whole since that is the only use they ever have. Mothers can buy cards containing whole words, and if they simply teach to teach something, they ought to do it by this method, combining the word cards with the proper reading book. I think children learn enough when, as you say, we answer their questions honestly and helpfully. School work comes soon enough.

Would you like the leaflet we have prepared on etiquette for children? You may have it for the usual self-addressed and stamped envelope.

Overhead Cleaning

There is nothing quite so irritating as to do cleaning overhead and have the water trickle down your arm. Tie a cloth around your wrist before starting out and be protected against this.

Right on the Hanger

Have coat hangers downstairs on ironing day so that the freshly ironed dress or blouse may be slipped on them as soon as they are ironed. They will be absolutely free from wrinkles if this is done.

A Change in Colors

The lingerie must be tinted occasionally to preserve the dainty appearance. A faded blue garment will tint a delicate orchid with the aid of pink dye. A pale yellow will shade into a delicate green if dipped in blue dye, and a pink dye will change the yellow to a medium shell pink. Be sure to use small quantities of the dye for these pastel shades.

FILM CAREER OF WIFE NOT DIVORCE GROUND

The mere fact that a woman involves in a career is not cruelty under the law, ruled Superior Judge Yankwich in a decision on file yesterday denying William J. Knott, motion-picture cameraman, a divorce from Pearl Knott, a motion-picture

Knott asserted cruelty in his complaint, declaring that shortly after marriage his wife became interested in motion-picture work and left him on several occasions. Once she told him she was going on location for two weeks and that her career was just as important as his, according to the complaint.

street.

Plaintiffs in the suit were Cay-etano J. Apablaza and John C. Apablasas and their mother, Concepcion Apablaza de Sepulveda, was the principal defendant. Lidofofo Sepulveda, their stepfather, and other members of the Apablaza family who declined to join the plaintiff were named technical defendants in the case.

The property involved in the case is said to have been part of the estate of Cayetano Apablaza, father of the plaintiffs, who died in 1898.
Issues raised in the complaint related to the conveyance of the property by the elder Apablaza to his wife shortly before his death. The plaintiffs asserted it was conveyed in contemplation of death and that their mother failed to carry out the reputed wishes of the decedent to keep the property intact for the children.

The compromise was effected through the efforts of attorneys connected with the case and the dismissal was entered accordingly.
Terms of the settlement were not disclosed in the action.

NEW JUDGE TO PASS ON
'CONTEMPT'

Counsel for Attorney Accused in Municipal Court Get Transfer

Interposing a demurrer on the ground that the Municipal Court has no power to punish contempt, attorneys for R. C. Huntington, Los Angeles attorney cited for contempt by Presiding Judge Turner for assertingly accepting $1450 to fix a liquor case, yesterday delayed hearing on the citation until today, when arguments on the demurrer, which also sets forth several other grounds, will be heard by Municipal Judge Pope.

Huntington's attorneys Richard Can-tillon and John Cooper, appeared before Judge Turner, who issued the citation, yesterday with an afdavit of prejudice against his hearing the case. Judge Turner then filed written consent to his transfer to another court, and the defense attorneys agreed with Chief Trial Deputy Judge Turner that the Prosecutor's office upon Judge Pope
as the trial judge.

Huntington recently was indicted by the grand jury on grand-larceny charges in connection with his acceptance of $1450 from Pelileo De Rico and his mother, Maria Lencioni of 2450 I-3 Houston street, to "fix" a liquor case against them in Municipal Court.

Miss Albertson Wins Victory in Jury's Verdict

Verdict of a jury in the damage suit of Miss Marie Bekef, oriental dancer, against Miss Lillian Alberson, producer, was returned late yesterday afternoon for the defendant. At a previous trial there had been a jury disagreement.

Miss Bekef sued for $32,100 as damages she suffered when, she says, she was forbidden the use of a certain dressing-room at the Windsor Square Theater during a performance of "The Desert Song"
two years ago. The dancer testified she was stopped at her dressing rooms in the presence of three men.
Miss Albertson denied Miss Bekef's story, and said she dismissed the dancer because she (Miss Bekef) smoked.

APPEAL COURT FREES BANKER

E. J. Young, Found Guilty of Theft and Fraud, Loosed

Hermosa Beach Defendant's
Trial Held Irregular

Punctilious Juror's Ousting
Defeats Conviction

E. J. Young, former official of a Hermosa Beach bank, who was convicted in Superior Court in March last on charges of grand theft, forgery and conspiracy to cheat and defraud, won a discharge in the District Court of Appeal here yesterday when Justice Craig reversed the judgment of the lower court on the ground that Young had been placed twice in jeopardy during trial of the case.

The decision, because of the many peculiarities of the case, will attract widespread attention among the legal profession, it was said yesterday by attorneys.

TRIAL PROCEEDS
Young went to trial with two co-defendants before Superior Judge Wilson on March 23, last. The jury was drawn at the morning session, twelve jurors and two alternates being chosen. The jury was sworn and after respective counsel viewed reading of the information the court
read the case briefly to the jury and pronounced a recess until afternoon.

At the opening of the afternoon session Judge Wilson announced, according to the demand of the defendant named Herbert Smith, was a fellow clubmember and social friend of himself. He informed the court that while he did not believe this fact would change his attitude as a juror, "these things always have a bearing."

CHALLENGE PERMITTED
There followed a discussion,
whereupon a deputy District Attorney in charge of the prosecution asked the court for permission to exercise a peremptory challenge,
"even though this juror has been sworn, if there is no objection." The opinion states that there was an objection on the part of Young's counsel but that Judge Wilson overruled the objection, permitted the challenge and excused the juror.

Defense Counsel Troy Pace, thereupon raised a question of law on which he later based his appeal and on which the reversal was granted by the higher court. He entered a special plea on behalf of the defendant of former jeopardy when the jury was impaneled and sworn and the statement of the court was made to the jury.

NEW JUROR CALLED
Objection to the plea was sustained and a woman, not an alternate, was called from the venire impaneled and sworn. The trial then proceeded and Young was convicted.

The Appellate Court concludes that error of a serious nature affecting the substantial rights of the defendant was committed by the sustaining of the peremptory challenge.

"It is equally clear that the jury,
having been completed and regularly impaneled and sworn before the peremptory challenge was allowed, the appealing defendant was in jeopardy," the Appellate Court held, and ordered the judgment reversed and the defendant discharged. Young, who has been free on bail pending his appeal, is a patient at a Glendale sanatorium.

Europe via the Orient
—$793

There is a new and delightful route to Europe.
It holds all the strange beauty and glamor of the Orient, yet costs little if any more than the old direct route.

You visit Honolulu,
Yokohama, Kobe, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Manila, Singapore, Penang, Colombo, Suez, Port Said, Alexandria and enter Europe through Naples, Genoa or Marseilles.

At every port you have from several hours to several days for sightseeing.
Or you may stopover for a week, two weeks or longer, continuing when you are ready on a liner exactly like the one on which you started.

At a slight additional charge, after your tour of Europe you may return to New York or Boston on one of these same Round the World President Liners. They sail fortnightly from Naples, Genoa and Marseilles via the sunny southern route.

Then, if you like, you may continue to California via Havana and the Panama Canal for a slightly additional amount.

You enjoy all the advantages of a trip Round the World as well as the trip through Europe.

You sail aboard palatial President Liners. They are luxuriously appointed. All cabins are amidships.
All are outside, equipped with beds,
not bunks. Spacious decks. A swimming pool. A cuisine famous among world travelers.

Your fare includes transportation,
meals and first class accommodations aboard ship—$793 from Los Angeles or San Francisco to Europe.

There is a sailing every week from Los Angeles and San Francisco.

James J. Braddock Confident He Will Win Title By Knocking Out Tommy Loughran

CHALLENGER MAKES BID FOR LAURELS THURSDAY

Walter Trumbull Finds Champ's Rival in Pink of Condition for Biggest Test of His Career

BY WALTER TRUMBULL

SARATOGA LAKE (N. Y.) July 15.—If James J. Braddock falls in his effort to win the light-heavyweight championship of the world, it will not be for lack of physical condition. I have never seen a finer specimen of clean-limbed, smooth-muscled American manhood than I saw in the ring here today.

Like and active as a young Loughran is pretty sure to throw a lot of lefts at him, but he apparently plans to take them and walk through them to get within firing distance. But Tommy has more than a left hand. I think few realize that he can put considerable steam behind a right to the body. Braddock lives in the same cottage that Jack Dempsey occupied when training for Sharkey, and secures the same privacy when he desires it. But Jimmy is an amiable and friendly youngster and spends much of his time on the lawn of the hotel, chatting with his friends and practicing golf strokes with a hooked-handled cane he has picked up somewhere.

One reason that Braddock is in such fine condition is that this is the first time he has been trained for a bout in such favorable surroundings. Here he gets pure air and water and plenty of sunshine. He has wooded roads on which to do his running, or he can cut across open fields, whereas formerly much of his daily road work was done, almost by rail, through where once he was almost run over by a train.

Braddock went through his exercises today before a smaller group of spectators than did Loughran yesterday, but the crowd at Tommy's camp yesterday, of course, was a Sunday crowd.

Tommy's camp wasn't here. He went to Boston last night and should be back in New York tomorrow. "Pats" Lawrence, the famous guide, was on hand and so were many other Jimmy's friends and relatives. All will be at the ring-side Thursday night to root and cheer for James J. Braddock, win or lose.

PREDICT KNOCKOUT
Those who have been watching him work for the past week are enthusiastic about him. They prophesy freely that he will win from Loughran by a knockout. It seems to me that this is asking a good deal of any youngster, however promising. Good men, strong men, powerful hitters, have tried to knock out Tommy Loughran, but they never got very far. Only two men, Tunney and Lomax, ever had Tommy on the floor and they couldn't keep him there.

Lomax hit Loughran hard enough to jar his entire family, and when Tommy was knocked down again, he was back on his feet. Loughran was down again, but he was back on his feet. Loughran was down again, but he was back on his feet. Loughran was down again, but he was back on his feet.

Jack Gaines, Dave Martin in Golf Tie

There was nothing to rave about. In fact, there was so much walling and gnashing of teeth that A. H. (Olie) Palmer was called upon to furnish a crying room for those leaving the eighteen green. Towels were furnished gratis. If the same conditions exist today, the 71 turned in by Martin and Gaines is likely to stand for low gross. The next best effort of yesterday was 71, registered by Wayne Baker of Fox Hills, C. W. Riley of Los Angeles, Bill Jelliffe of Girard, Harry B. Westbrook of Annandale, and Wilbur Johnson of Los Angeles.

Next in line were three 72's shot by Dan C. Smith of Houston, Tex., Harry Atwater, Jr., of Rancho and Paul Lavelle of Fox Hills.

Gaines shot superb golf most of the way around, but snuffed his chance to lead the field on the eighth and ninth holes, when he went two over par with a 5 and a 6. He had a 5 going over the hole.

Coming in he bagged two birdies and seven pars for a 34, getting a birdie 4 on the eighteenth hole to tie the 34.

Here are the cards:
Par (out) 444 444 344-35
Gaines 444 344 344-35
Martin 444 344 344-35

One of the feature tournaments for today will get off at 1:30, composed of Winston Fuller and Harry Eichelberger, Jr., of Los Angeles, Les Pennington of Wilshire, and Gibson Dunlap of Riverside, Southern California amateur champion. This will be Dunlap's first major tournament locally since he won the amateur crown at Del-Air a short time ago.

SPALDING PLAYS
Other prominent golfers who have secured starting times for today are Bill Spaulding, Nick Schaefer, George Ruben, Cliff Castle, C. K. Menhart, E. V. Wesley and Bud Oakley.

The first round of match play starts tomorrow. There will be ten flights, the first flight of thirty-two and nine flights of sixteen. For those who are interested in first-round matches, there will be an eighteen-hole consolation round Friday. This is also open to those who fail to qualify.

The Harding course is in the finest condition possible, thanks to the excellent work of Walter Kreutmeier, greenskeeper, and the tournament committee, which is composed of J. H. Alford, Jack Turcott, Milo Thompson, Fuller Thompson, Ed Lampton, C. Heile and Paul Oakley.

Following are yesterday's qualifying scores with starting times for today:

Poincare Round All Opposition

of Briand in Complete Defeat of Foes

Chamber Reminded

PARIS, July 16. (AP)—The P

... government was victorious today in its fight for repeal of the Mellon-Berenger demand in the Chamber of Deputies. The first victory against the tax was on a motion to postpone.

On the question of ratification
ultimately, the government received 284 votes against 239, having made the motion a question of confidence.

Franklin Bouillon, who may be convinced by the arguments of Foreign Minister Briand, feeling it was hopeless to fight the government, withdrew, the Poincare government winning all along.

friends and foes alike are agreed that Premier Poincare's negotiation of the debt settlements was stowed away after his term. Political observers believe much the bill through
